The cover shows a bier sitting at the head of the nave of a church. In the background, one can see six lit candles on the Altar. Centred in their line stands the Altar Cross. It therefore makes for a seventh object in a set. Seven is the number of completion in traditional symbolology because God rested on the seventh day after He created the universe. The candles are of unbleached wax: they are darker to suggest mourning. Six (ideally unbleached) candles frame the bier in the foreground and they are also visually ‘completed’ by the bier itself, or by the crucifix which sits on the pillow over the pall. But the body is dead, whereas the Altar Cross crowns a living Christ in the Tabernacle. The crucifix on the pall depicts a dying Christ Who will rise again. Therefore, it offers the prospect of eternal salvation. Black can be seen as the ground colour for the pall and the clerics’ vestments. It is the colour of death because it is the colour of visual deprivation.
NOTES

1. Traditional Latin Masses in our community are celebrated in accordance with the terms regarding the 1962 Roman Missal as set forth in the apostolic letter “Summorum Pontificum”, given motu proprio by Pope Benedict XVI on 7 July, 2007. They are never Dialogue Masses. All responses are said by the Altar Server(s) and/or sung by the Choir, with the congregation singing along for certain parts when it is able. At spoken Masses, faithful in the pews are asked not to make any of the responses audibly.

2. Please observe the correct postures during Mass. These are indicated in blue outlined text (e.g. as [KNEEL], [STAND] or [SIT]) whenever changed.

3. Places where bowing at the neck is expected are indicated in the text in small capital letters. A bow from the waist is likewise indicated as an inclination.

4. A black cross symbol (‡) is a sign for the Celebrant alone; a red cross (✠) indicates when both Priest and Congregation make the Sign of the Cross.

5. Please observe great reverence for the Real Presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle or on the Altar. Refrain from talking or taking pictures or from any other action which may distract others in their prayers. Applause, in particular, is never apposite during a Traditional Latin Mass or other Liturgy.

6. Prepare yourself prayerfully before the beginning of Mass. It is usual for faithful to offer prayers of thanksgiving and adoration both immediately after distribution of the Blessed Sacrament and, for a time, after Mass, whether one is receiving Sacramentally or only spiritually. An excellent way of preparing oneself before Mass is to pray the devotion(s) at the end of this booklet.

7. When the Celebrant passes your pew in procession or recession, please bow the neck as he passes. When receiving aspersed holy water, please incline from the waist and make the Sign of the Cross. When receiving incense, please stand and incline from the waist as the Thurifer censes you.

8. If the Creed is sung in the solemn form, the Celebrant and Acolytes will reverence the Altar at the foot before proceeding to the sedilia. Please do not genuflect at this point. Instead, genuflect with them when the Celebrant does so at the Altar.

9. A collection is taken at the Offertory only on Sundays and current Holydays of Obligation. In the Dominion of Canada, these are Christmas Day and New Year’s Day.
This booklet is designed to provide faithful with the texts for Requiem Masses which are said between the times of a departed’s death and his or her burial, and to include with this texts for rites related to funerals and burial. The Church grants to each departed faithful one Funeral Mass of the first class at which the body is expected to be present; and she allows between the time of death and the time of burial that other Masses having the same propers be said for that person. These other Masses take the second class, and the body of the deceased may also be present at any one of them. It is typical that one or more second-class Requiem Mass(es) be said for a departed soul on the day of his or her death and/or soon thereafter. Such a Mass may also be said for a soul upon hearing of that person’s death, even if this occur after the time of burial. In addition, it is common practice that another such second-class Requiem Mass be said on the day of burial when this occurs some time after the offering of the first-class Funeral Mass.

The principal Mass of tribute for a faithful departed is the Funeral Mass. This Mass is preceded by a Rite of Blessing of the Body at the place of death and then, after a conveyance of the body to the church, a Rite of Reception of the Body into the church. It is ideally preceded as well by the Office of the Dead in whole, a part of that being observed more often (although, in parishes in Canada, it is usually omitted altogether). It is followed immediately by the Absolution over the pall, whether the body be present, as it normally will be, or not. Finally, there is a Committal at the tomb or the grave. This booklet provides the texts for these Requiem Masses, the Rite of Blessing the Body, the Rite of Reception of the Body, and the Absolution over the body or just the pall. Texts for the Committal at the Graveside and the Office of the Dead will be provided in companion booklets. This booklet does not treat of funerals for clerics or for infants (those under the age of seven) or for several departed souls who are to be interred at the same time.

The fruits or graces we receive by attending Mass are greatest when we participate spiritually. We should conform our intentions to those of our Lord, making our own sacrifices for Him as, through the hands of the Priest, He perpetuates His perfect intention to Sacrifice Himself to save mankind. At the Mass, this holy intention is achieved in an unbloody manner so as to make the fruits of the Passion at Calvary accessible both to the living and the dead. At Mass, we also call to mind the Last Supper, at which the Sacrifice of Calvary was anticipated, and are formed in the Word given unto us in Holy Writ and at Sermons. Following the prayers along with the Celebrant is ideally the most fruitful way to participate in the Mass. For that reason, we need the text which one finds in a missal.
Each missalette consists of four parts, as follows: (1) An information section; (2) The Ordinary of the Mass; (3) the Propers of the Mass; and (4) Devotions proper to the season or feasts.

In this Missalette, we have integrated propers into the Ordinary where they are the same or almost identical over all the Masses of the Dead. Where propers differ across the Masses of the Dead, we have put sets of them for each Mass in a separate section which follows the Ordinary. This can be marked with a ribbon for convenient reference. After this section of propers, we have also added Extra Propers which are allowed by the Church as commemorations.

The Ordinary of the Mass consists of those prayers which are usually said at Mass, and it includes some seasonal adjustments. Minor changes which occur occasionally will be explained along the way. The Propers of the Mass are those prayers which characterise particular Masses from day to day. They may be said to be “proper” to that day. The Ordinary and the particular Propers for the day make up the complete Mass. In the Traditional Latin Mass, the Sermon, if given, and distribution of Holy Communion, when given, are not parts of the Mass but pertain to it.

In this Missalette, the term Sung Mass refers to any Mass that is sung; the term Spoken Mass refers to other Masses. In our community, the All Souls' Day Mass may be sung in some years but it is usually not; other Masses of the Dead are normally not sung. In these Missalettes, we use textual coloration, bracketing and different font types to help the reader navigate through the texts, rubrics, postural directions and options. To this end, we have adopted the following conventions:

- Black printing presents the text of the Mass (whether Sung or Spoken).
- Blue text indicates postures for the faithful to follow.
- Red highlights comments that aid in understanding the prayers or the actions of Priest or Server(s). Bolded black text adds commentary. Bolded black text adds commentary B
- A yellow highlighted text area always refers to the Propers.
- A blue highlighted area refers to texts which are said only when specified.
- Grey highlighted areas are skipped when there is no incensing.

Directions for the congregation are enclosed in square brackets […]. Reverencings are also rendered in small capital letters (e.g. [BOW], [INCLINE], [GENUFLECT]). Postures are printed in blue (e.g. KNEEL, SIT, STAND). A bow is a bending of the neck, while an inclination is made from the waist.
SPECIAL NOTES FOR FUNERAL MASSES

THE FUNERAL MASS
The Liturgy of the Catholic Church provides that one Mass of the first class be offered for the repose of the soul of a faithful Catholic. As a rule, the body of the deceased is to be present at this Mass; however, for a just cause, the body might not be there (e.g. It might not be possible). The Traditional Liturgy expects that this Mass be preceded by a blessing of the body of the deceased, a Rite of Reception in the church and then the Office of the Dead; and it must be followed by an Absolution over the bier (or over the pall if the body is not to be present). The Sequence Dies Irae must be said at this Mass (and may always be said at other Requiem Masses). This is what is generally called the Funeral or Exsequial Mass. It may be said on any day (except a liturgically excluded day) between the time of death and the time of burial. It is typically offered at least three days after death so that family and friends of the deceased may have reasonable opportunity to pay their respects and pray for the departed.

THE OFFICE OF THE DEAD
The Office of the Dead, not to be confused with the Divine Office, is part of the Liturgy of the Roman Rite. It consists only of the three hours of Vespers, Matins and Lauds. Vespers typically closes the wake on the eve of the Funeral Mass; Matins and Lauds, when observed, are usually sung or said between the Rite of the Reception of the Body in the church and the offering of the Funeral Mass, even though they can properly be said at any time. Ideally, Matins, being the night hour, would be said at midnight preceding the Funeral, and Lauds would be said thereafter at sunrise. This is not customarily done at those times, however. The Church expects but does not bind observance of the Office of the Dead before the time of the Funeral Mass. In most places, the Office, sadly, is not prayed at all; in others, it is recited rather than chanted; in some places, only some hours are followed or, in the case of Matins, only one of the three nocturns is prayed and Lauds might be omitted after this. Each of the hours of the Dead may be prayed following the corresponding hour of the Divine Office, and this is the liturgical expectation of the Rite and would be normally followed in monastic practice. In Canada, Vespers of the Dead is much more commonly prayed than are the other two hours.

It is permissible and praiseworthy that, should it be very difficult to pray the Office publicly, at least a minimal part of it could be chanted (e.g. one Nocturn of Matins) by a lay choir after the Rite of the Reception of the Body and before the Funeral Mass. This will not fulfil the liturgical requirement to pray the Office and, in fact, does not qualify as the Office or as any liturgical service. However, the Celebrant could overcome that deficiency by praying it privately in the sacristy while this chant is being sung (or at some other time between death and burial). That would indeed fulfil the requirement provided that, after Vespers be observed, at least one Nocturn of Matins be recited (viz. the one proper to the day when it is to be said). Lauds need not be observed at all to fulfil the liturgical requirement.
ADDITIONAL REQUIEM MASSES OF THE SECOND CLASS
The Church also provides that additional Requiem Masses be offered for departed faithful, some before and some after the time of death or burial. Those offered before the time of death or final burial have the same propers as the Funeral Mass, but they all take the second class; hence they may not be said on Sundays or on first-class feasts. Typically, a Requiem Mass is offered on the day of death or upon hearing of death. This affords faithful the opportunity to pray Mass—the highest form of supplication of the Church—for the departed as soon as possible after a soul faces immediate judgement. It is also normal (but not common everywhere) to arrange a Burial Mass on the day of burial and after the time of the Funeral Mass. The first-class Funeral Mass is the more formal and more public commemoration, whereas a separate second-class Burial Mass can be a more intimate and private way to pay tribute to a departed loved one. A good custom kept by some families and devoutly to be recommended is that three Masses be said for a deceased person from the time of death to the time of burial: a first Mass of the second class as soon as possible after death; a Burial or other Requiem Mass of the first class with the body being present; and another Requiem Mass of the second class (with or without the body present) on or before the day of interment. Finally, just before the time of burial, the Church provides a separate liturgy: the Committal, known also as Graveside Obsequies.

REQUIEM MASSES OFFERED AFTER BURIAL
In addition to these, four third-class Requiem Masses are customarily offered at prescribed intervals after the time of death and burial. But these Masses, which take the third class, have some different propers and are not treated in this Missalette. They can be found in our Missalette for Masses of the Dead, where we have also included the first Mass of All Souls’ Day (first class) and the fourth-class Daily Mass of the Dead. Finally, fourth-class Masses of the Dead can be offered for a particular departed faithful each year on or near his date of death or burial. Holy Church provides lavishly for the Dead because the entire purpose of our sojourn here on earth is to enter into the eternal bliss of Heaven. We can pray for the deceased in Purgatory and those in Heaven and in Purgatory can also pray for us.

MASSES FOR THE BURIAL OF CHILDREN
Baptised children aged seven to twelve years and all adolescents are buried with the same rites as are adults. Children who have not attained the seventh year of age when they die, whether born or not, are not buried or commemorated by any Requiem Mass or by any Mass in black paraments before or after death or burial. Instead, their burial is solemnised by a Votive Mass of the Holy Angels in white vestments, and the coffin and Altar candles are to be bleached white beeswax candles. White or white and gold flowers adorn the sanctuary and the spread on the coffin, and flowers may remain on the coffin in the church in place of a crucifix, for example. The Gloria is included in all Votive Masses of the Holy Angels by special privilege but there is professed no Creed. If they must be buried on a certain day which liturgically excludes the Votive Mass of the Holy Angels, the Mass of the day (usually having a Creed) is used but, in either case, Mass is preceded by a blessing of the body and a Rite of Reception; and it is followed by an Absolution over a smaller white pall (with or without the body being present) and a Rite of Committal at the graveside. The Obsequies follow the same structure of rites as that for adults except that all the prayers are different, the Requiem aeternam in the Psalms is replaced by the Lesser Doxology (Glory) and the Office of the Dead is never chanted nor recited. Innocent children may not be commemorated by any propers taken from Requiem Masses, as there is no reason to pray for them.

Liturgical Commemorations and Features

Only one extra set of commemorations may be added to any Requiem Mass, and this must pertain to prayers for the deceased. The reason is that, like Votive Masses, Requiems are liturgically apart from the Office of the day. On no account is any seasonal feria or saint to be commemorated at any Mass of the Dead of any class. Votive commemorations are also excluded unless they pertain to the dead.

While ferial and feastday Masses may not be commemorated at Requiem Masses of the Dead, the reverse is not the case: the propers of the Funeral Mass or some other Requiem Mass for a deceased faithful will often be commemorated at third- and fourth-class feasts and sometimes on second-class feasts (but not second-class Sundays) as well. This is an extremely important consideration: it means that a departed soul can be commemorated at most feastday, ferial and votive Masses between the time of death and the time of burial, or on days connected to that soul (e.g. the feastday of his patron saint, the anniversary of his nuptials) after his or her burial. In our community, Masses are normally offered on Fridays in addition to any special Masses on other weekdays. This means that a deceased faithful may often be commemorated at the regular Friday Mass in addition to having a Requiem Mass said for him or her.

While the dramatic Dies Irae Sequence is only mandatory at a first-class Funeral Mass and at the first or sole Mass said on All Souls’ Day, it may be included at any Requiem Mass and is especially appropriate at the more solemn Masses for the Dead, such as those of the second class.

In cases when Absolution is to be imparted over the pall (whether the body is present or not) after Mass, a Sermon in honour of the deceased person(s) being commemorated should be said not after the Gospel but after the Placeat tibi at the end of Mass. When no Absolution is to be imparted, the Sermon, if said, is said in the usual place after the Gospel. Eulogies are not declaimed at Catholic Requiem Masses or during the Office of the Dead. However, they may be delivered during the wake, at which time it is also customary to pray the Rosary for the deceased.
Flowers
At funerals, the custom is to display white flowers in the sanctuary for departed faithful who were never married and red for others. By way of substitution, it is customary to prefer pink or faded red roses at the funerals of older ladies who had been married; or there could be an admixture of red and pink flowers in such cases. For the flowers displayed at wakes and for the spread on the coffin, there is a tendency to include other colours. Bright yellow suggests the prospect of eternal life and dark red roses signify deep mourning. Roses, lilies and carnations, among other flowers, are common at wakes and at funeral homes. Circular wreaths of flowers express eternal life because a circular line has no end in direction. Those or other similar flowers may be placed onto the coffin at the burial. To express a final farewell, it is common practice in Canada for family members and close friends to drop flowers or handfuls of earth onto the coffin before they leave the burial site. If the family asks that donations be given in lieu of flowers, this does not forbid flowers given in addition to the donation, and it is proper to send both or else the donation alone.

Interment
The custom in the Traditional Rite is to bury our dead so as to respect the teaching of the General Resurrection. Hence there is no provision in our Rite for Absolution after Mass over a funerary urn (but there could be Absolution over just the pall). The Church presently allows cremation of the body provided that there be no intent to deny the Resurrection in doing so. However, the remains of our dead are to be buried or otherwise contained in burial sites, whether as bodies or as ashes. It is forbidden ever to spread the ashes over the waters or in forests or to keep them at home. Cremation, while allowed, is not traditional. However, some families cannot easily afford burial or entombment (although inexpensive burial is now more accessible if the body be frozen and not embalmed).

Clothing
The custom is for everyone to wear black clothes at the first-class funeral Mass and at any second-class Requiem Mass on the day of burial. For women, this means a black mantilla or hat with black veil; for men, it means that a solid black tie should be worn with a black suit and white shirt. At Requiem Masses after the Mass of the thirtieth day after burial, widows and widowers should wear black and others should wear black as well or else darker clothes. (Relatives who are still in their mourning periods will still wear black.) Black armbands are appropriate with grey and blue suits or other clothes.

The old categories of deep mourning, half-mourning and light mourning have been obsolete since the end of the 1920s. The moderated rules were in effect in the 1960s when the social revolution came and largely destroyed any sense of propriety. Darker colours should be worn by all mourners at all Requiem Masses for the deceased.
The periods of mourning from the date of death are as follows:
A year and a day for spouses;
Six months for parents and children;
Three months for grandparents, grandchildren and siblings;
One month for aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and close friends.

Mourning clothing is no longer common in Canada. As a result, it can be expensive to follow all the customs. Those who cannot should do their best, for example, by wearing black armbands for the mourning period. It is more important to pray for the dead than to express our dispositions to others.

Other Customs
Here in Canada, as in many countries, it has long been the practice that, upon the time of death, all the curtains are drawn shut at the place of death and they are left closed until the time of burial. It is the same rule with the lowering of a flag if the decedent be armigerous: it is done until sunset on the day of burial. It was customary everywhere to avoid music until after burial so as to keep a respectful silence to remember the dead by. In this respect, funerary customs are like those of Lent: they are dolorous. Mirrors are covered or turned against the wall at the time of death to discourage vanity or self-regard. Clocks are stopped to indicate a pause in these shadowlands as the soul passes to a timeless eternity. As long as we understand the real meaning of these customs, they are wholesome and not superstitious. It is pure superstition to believe that the first person to look in the mirror at the time of death will die next. The Catholic Faith forbids such fables.

There is a general practice that we give space for close family members of the departed to mourn in privacy. Even where loud lamentations are customary, they are restricted to certain times, such as the wake. The wake is also a good time to offer condolences, which can also be expressed at scheduled condolence visits to the bereaved. Those who are in mourning may generally prefer not to leave home for some time and not to be bothered constantly by those wanting to express their regrets. The liturgical provisions of the Church enable proper respect to be conveyed in particular ways. Apart from that, it is a good and wholesome practice to pray privately for the dead whom we miss. This can be done by recourse to the Rosary and the other devotions of Holy Mother Church.
FEATURES OF REQUIEM MASSES BEFORE THE TIME OF BURIAL

1. There is only one form of Requiem Mass—one set of propers—to be used at Requiem Masses which are offered for a faithful departed between the time of death and the time of burial. This Mass may also be said upon hearing of death even if that happens after the time of burial. Only one of these Masses, the Funeral Mass, takes the first class; the others take the second. The funeral Masses may be offered as the last Mass before burial.

2. These other Requiem Masses may be said on the day of death (or within eight days of death inclusive), upon hearing of death, upon burial if the Funeral Mass be said before that time, or upon final burial if the body is to be interred a second time.

3. The Dies Irae Sequence must be said at the first-class Funeral Mass and the first or sole Mass of All Souls’ Day, and it may and should be recited at second-class Requiem Masses. It may also be said at all other Requiem Masses and is especially appropriate at the Mass on the anniversary of death or burial. At a Sung Mass, the Priest may descend to the sedilia while it is chanted.

4. The Funeral Mass is properly preceded by a Rite of Blessing the Body, a Rite of Reception of the body in the church, and the Office of the Dead. The Office may be said at any time but none of it is ever mandatory. A wake is traditionally held on the evening before the day of the Funeral. It typically includes a Rosary said for the departed and closes with Vespers of the Dead.

5. The first-class Funeral Mass must be followed by an Absolution over the pall, even if the body be not present.

6. The body should be present if possible at the Funeral Mass and may be present at any second-class Requiem Mass offered prior to burial.

7. If an Absolution over the pall is to be given after Mass, with or without the presence of the body, the Sermon, if given, is delivered at the end of Mass following the Placeat tibi; otherwise, it is given after the Gospel as usual.

8. No eulogies are ever delivered at a Traditional Roman Requiem Mass of any kind. They are normally said at a wake or at a reception held in honour of the deceased after burial.

9. If any of these Requiem Masses be said after the eighth day following death or burial, the adverb hodie [today] is omitted at Collect and Postcommunion.
10. An Aspersion is never said before any of these Masses because, on a Sunday, the first-class Requiem Mass may not be the principal Mass of the day in the Traditional Rite.

11. The propers of this Mass are those of the First Mass of All Souls’ Day except for the Collect, Epistle, Gospel, Secret and Postcommunion. The Epistle and Gospel of this Mass are the same as those provided for Requiem Masses offered on the third, seventh and thirtieth days after death or burial. However, the Collect, Secret and Postcommunion are not used at any other Requiem Mass.

12. All Masses of the Dead use the same Introit, Gradual, Tract, Offertory and Communion Versicles; and they all use the Preface of the Dead.

13. In the Prayers at the Foot, Psalm 42, Judica me, is omitted, as is the Glory and versicle and responsory which normally follow it.

14. At Sung Masses, there is no censing before the Introit and no censing or lights at the Gospel. At the Offertory incensing, the Celebrant is the only person to be censed. There is a normal incensing of the Blessed Sacrament at the double elevation.

15. At the opening of the Introit, the Celebrant makes the Signum Crucis over the Missal instead of upon himself. There is no Glory in the Introit but the Antiphon is repeated as usual after the Psalm verse.

16. The Gloria which is usually said after the Kyrie is omitted, just as it is during Lent.

17. At all Requiem Masses, the Alleluia most often said at Mass after the Gradual is replaced by a Tract even during Eastertide. All Requiem Masses include Gradual and Tract.

18. During Eastertide, the Paschal Candle is to remain in the sanctuary but it is not to be lit. In the Traditional Rite, the Paschal Candle is never lit during a Requiem Mass. Three funerary candles of unbleached wax stand on each side of the pall. Ideally, the candles to be lit on the Altar should also be composed of yellowish or orange-coloured unbleached wax.

19. Before the Gospel, the Celebrant omits the “Jube Domine/Domne benedicere” to its “Amen”. (This bidding normally follows the Munda cornuem.)

20. The Priest does not kiss the book after the Gospel; nor does he make the customary response following the Servers’ response.

21. The Creed is not said at any Mass of the Dead.
22. At the Presentation, the Priest does not make the Signum Crucis over the water cruet but he does bless the water without making this sign.

23. At the end of the Lavabo, the Glory is omitted (as it is during Lent).

24. The Canon is standard at Masses of the Dead, using the standard Communicantes and Hanc Igitur.

25. At the Agnus Dei, the Priest does not put his hands on the Altar and neither he nor anyone else strikes his breast. He folds his hands before his breast and the ending of each petition departs from the one used in other Masses. Instead of “miserere nobis, . . . miserere nobis, . . . dona nobis pacem”, the Priest says “dona eis requiem, . . . dona eis requiem, . . . dona eis requiem sempiternam [grant them rest, . . . grant them rest, . . . grant them eternal rest].

26. The first of the Priest’s private prayers of preparation is omitted.

27. The Dismissal is replaced by Requiescant in pace and the Response Amen; and the Priest does not turn to the people to say this.

28. The Last Blessing is omitted after the Placeat tibi, but the Last Gospel is said as usual unless an Absolution is to follow.

29. Throughout Requiem Masses and at all other Obsequies, the Servers do not kiss hands or any object.

30. The organ, pace Gabriel Fauré, should not be played at any Requiem Mass except to support voices. But exceptions have been made since the nineteenth century, and these are generally admitted on æsthetic grounds. Certainly, Fauré’s ethereal Requiem Mass setting cannot be forbidden.

31. The colour of Requiem Masses is black. All the paraments are black except the Chalice pall and the tabernacle veil, which are purple. Those may not be black because they veil our Lord, Who is always alive. When infants die, they are held to be innocent, and so a Votive Mass of the Holy Angels is said and the colour for all the paraments is white.

32. Connected to the Funeral Mass is the Rite of Blessing the body. This is traditionally done at the place of death and is followed by a procession to a church for the Funeral Mass. The Priest is vested in surplice and black stole and cope and is assisted usually by two Servers in cassock and cotta. In procession to the church, a cross-bearer leads a procession, followed by Choristers, the Celebrant and his assistants, the hearse and its conveyors, and by other faithful, led in descending order of kinship by the family of the deceased. When, in present times, a long procession by foot to the church is omitted, the Priest may perform this Rite outside the church. The Rite is normally prayed immediately after the coffin is removed from the hearse. If any part of the Office of the Dead is to be prayed after the Rite of Reception, the Priest wears surplice and black stole under a black cope and removes the cope and stole at the sedilia, changing into Mass vestments later in the sacristy.

33. It is customary that the faithful carry lighted candles during the conveyance of the body into the church, during the Gospel at Mass, from the Elevation of the Blessed Sacrament to the communication of the people, and during the Absolution after Mass and the recession of the body from the church. This tradition is no longer observed in most places but it is praiseworthy to preserve or restore it.

34. A second liturgy connected to the Funeral is the Rite of Reception of the Body. This is prayed at the head of the nave. Ideally, the Priest stands facing the hearse between sanctuary and bier to receive the body in prayer; however, if there be insufficient room for this, he may face the bier from the sanctuary.

35. Lastly, the Committal at the tomb or grave, known commonly as ‘Graveside Obsequies’, is a Rite of final farewell observed immediately before the body is buried or sealed in a tomb. There is a procession to the grave, a blessing of the grave if needed and a blessing of the body before burial. Then the Canticle of Zachary and more formulaic prayers are recited by Priest and Assistant(s) at the grave and in recession as family and friends say their final farewell.

36. Liturgically-speaking, the Committal is merely a part of the Rite of Absolution made in the church after Mass. After aspersing and censing the bier, the body was usually taken in procession to the churchyard outside for burial as the Choir chanted the In Paradisum. In our time, it is more common for a hearse to conduct the body to a faraway cemetery.

37. It is traditional to bury the body so that its feet lie at the east end of the grave or tomb; its head, at the west end. In effect, the body faces east in death.

38. There are different rubrical directions to be followed at the funerals of clerics and there are small differences in number for verbs and pronouns if more than one person be buried together. But one must be wary of these distinctions, as some prayers maintain a plural number even at Masses for individuals (e.g. the Non intres prayer at the Absolution—and there are others.)
Traditionally, this Rite was prayed at the place of death and was followed by a conveyance of the body to the church where the Funeral Mass was to be offered. The Priest, vested in surplice, black cope and black stole, and assisted by one or two Servers in cassock and cotta, imparted a blessing while aspersing the body and then led the body to the church.

Today, given the advent of the automobile, this blessing is typically given outside the church after the coffin has been removed from the hearse. If Mass is to follow the Rite of Meeting the Body immediately, the Priest wears black cope and black stole with his Mass vestments (other than the chasuble and maniple); however, if it is to precede any part of the Office of the Dead, he wears black cope and black stole over his surplice and then removes the stole to say the Office before re-vesting for Mass.

The Priest asperses the body of the deceased, saying this verse from Psalm 129:

Si iniquitátes observáveris, Dómíne: If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities, Dómíne, quis sustínébit? Lord, who shall endure it?

Then he recites all of Psalm 129 and follows it with the Requiem:

De profúndis clamávi ad te, Dómíne: Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, Dómíne, exáudi vocem meam. O Lord! Lord, hear my voice.

Fiant aures tuæ intendéntes: in vocem deprecatiónis meæ. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

Si iniquitátes observáveris, Dómíne: If Thou, O Lord, shalt mark iniquities, Dómíne, quis sustínébit? Lord, who shall endure it?

Quia apud te propitiátio est: if Thou, O Lord, there is merciful forgiveness, et propter legem tuam sustínui te, and by reason of Thy law, Dómíne. I have waited upon Thee, O Lord.

Sustínuit ánima mea in verbo ejus: My soul hath relied on his word: sperávit ánima mea in Dómino. my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

A custódia matutína usque ad noctem: From the morning watch even until speret Israēl in Dómino. night, let Israel hope in the Lord.

Quia apud Dóminus misericórdia: For, with Thee, there is merciful et copiósa apud eum redémptio. forgiveness, and by reason of Thy law, Et ipse rédimet Israēl, and with him, plentiful redemption. ex ómnibus iniquitátibus ejus. And he shall redeem Israel ℣. Requiem ætérnam dona eis, Dómíne. ¶ Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

℟. Et lux perpétua lúceat eis. ¶ And let perpetual light shine upon them.
Now he repeats the Antiphon in full:
Si iniquitátes observáveris, Dómine: If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities, Dómine, quis sustinébit? Lord, who shall endure it?

Then he intones the Antiphon for Psalm 50, the Choir, or a Cantor, responding:
Exsultábunt Dómino * ossa humiliáta. The bones that have been humbled shall rejoice in the Lord.

Psalm 50 is now chanted antiphonally by two Cantors or two Choirs, or it may be chanted by one Choir or Cantor, as the body is conveyed to the Church. This is followed by the verse Subvenite, chanted as the Body is taken into the narthex. However, if the Rite of Blessing is imparted outside the church and there is only a short procession to the door, it may be sensible to enter the church on the third or fourth verse of the Psalm and to chant the rest of it in the narthex as flowers or a flag\(^1\) are removed from the coffin and the pall is imposed on it, with or without an overlaid crucifix.

Miserére mei, Deus *
secúndum magnum misericórdiam tuam.

Have mercy on me, O God: according to Thy great mercy.

Et secúndum multitúdinem miserationum tuárum, * dele iniquitátem meam.
And according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies: blot out mine iniquity.

Amplius lava me ab iniquitáte mea: * et a peccáto meo munda me.
Wash me yet more from mine iniquity: and cleanse me from my sin.

Quóniam iniquitátem meam ego cognósco: * et peccátum meum contra me est semper.
For I acknowledge mine iniquity: and my sin is always before me.

Tibi soli peccávi , et malum coram te feci: * ut justificéris in sermónibus tuis, et vincas cum judicáris.
Against Thee only have I sinned, and done evil before Thee: that Thou mayest be justified in Thy words, and mayest overcome when Thou art judged.

Ecce enim in iniquitáribus concéptus sum: * et in peccátis concépit me mater mea.
For behold, I was conceived in iniquities: and in sins did my mother conceive me.

Ecce enim veritátem dilexísti: * incé̇rta et occúlta sapiéntiae tuæ manifestásti mihi.
For, behold, Thou hast loved truth: the uncertain and hidden things of Thy wisdom, Thou hast made manifest to me.

---

\(^1\) If the departed soul was a member of the Canadian Armed Forces or an elected or appointed representative of the Crown, the National Flag may have been spread over the coffin in place of flowers. In such a case, it is improper to deface the flag with flowers, so the flag alone will be removed. If the deceased was armigerous, he or she may have had his own flag, taken from his/her arms. In that case, any flag present may be overlaid with flowers, and flowers and flag will also be removed before the pall is imposed.
Aspérges me hyssópo, et mundábor:
* lavábis me, et super nivem dealbábor.

Audítui meo dabis gáudium et lætítiam:
* et exsultábunt ossa humiliátā.

Avérte fáciem tuam a peccátis meis:
* et omnes iniquitátes meas dele.

Cór mundum crea in me, Deus:
* et spíritum rectum ínnov in viscéribus meis.

Ne projúcias me a fácie tua:
* et spíritum sanctum tuum ne áuferas a me.

Redde mihi lætítiam salutáris tui:
* et spíritum principáli confírma me.

Docébo iníquos vias tuas:
* et impii ad te converténtur.

Líbera me de sanguínibus, Deus, Deus salútis meae: * et exsultábit lingua mea justítiam tuam.

Dómine, labia mea apéries:
* et os meum annuntiábit laudem tuam.

Quóniam, si voluísses sacrificium, dedíssem útique:
* holocáustis non delectáberis.

Sacrificium Deo spíritus contribulátus:
* cor contrítum et humiliátum,
Deus, non despícies.

Benígne fac, Dómine,
in bona voluntáte tua Sion:
* ut ædificéntur muri Jerúsalem.

Tunc acceptábis sacrificium justítiae oblationes et holocáusta:
* tunc impónent super altáre tuum vítulos.

Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed:
Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.
To my hearing, Thou shalt give joy and gladness: and the bones that were humbled shall rejoice.

Turn away Thy face from my sins: and blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Thy face: and take not Thy holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation: and strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

I will teach the unjust Thy ways: and the wicked shall be converted to Thee.

Deliver me from blood guiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation: and my tongue shall extol Thy justice.

O Lord, Thou wilt open my lips: and my mouth shall declare Thy praise.

For if Thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would indeed have given it: with burnt-offerings, Thou wilt not be delighted.

A sacrifice to God is a troubled spirit: a contrite and humbled heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

Deal favourably, O Lord, in Thy good will with Sion: that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up.

Then shalt Thou accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations and whole burnt-offerings: then shall they lay calves upon Thine altar.
Now the Requiem is repeated and is followed by the Antiphon of the Psalm:

℣. Requiém ætérnam * dona eis, Dómine.  ❙. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord ℟. Et lux perpétua lúceat eis.

Antiphon: Exsultábunt Dómino ossa humíliáta. The bones that have been humbled shall rejoice in the Lord.

Finally, the Subvenite is chanted, as the body is carried into the narthex or from narthex to nave.

Subveníte, * Sancti Dei, occúrrite, Angeli Dómini: Come to his/her assistance, ye saints of God, meet him/her, ye angels of the Lord, Suscipiéntes ániman ejus, receiving his/her soul, offering it offeréntes eam in conspéctu Altíssimi in the sight of the Most High.

Lastly, the following versicles and responses are exchanged in chant, or else they are recited by Celebrant and other clerics (or by Celebrant and a Server) as the body is conveyed to the head of the nave and placed there among the six funerary candles.

℣. Suscípiat te Christus qui vocávit te, et in sinum Abrahæ Angeli dedúcant te.  ❙. May Christ, Who has called thee, receive thee, and may the angels conduct thee into Abraham’s bosom.

℟. Suscipiéntes ániman ejus, offeréntes eam in conspéctu Altíssimi.  ❙. Receiving his/her soul, offering it in the sight of the Most High.

℣. Réquiem ætérnam dona ei, Dómine: et lux perpétua lúceat ei.  ❙. Eternal rest grant unto him/her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him/her.

℟. Offeréntes eam in conspéctu Altíssimi.  ❙. Offering it in the sight of the Most High.
The body is borne to the head of the nave so that the feet are nearest the Altar, (unless the departed is a cleric, in which case the head is towards the Altar). Once the chanting has ended, if Nocturns and Lauds of the Dead, or some part of it, is not to be observed liturgically but is only to be chanted by a Choir (whether or not also said privately by a cleric), or if Mass is to follow next, then the following prayers, with versicles and responses, are said by the Priest as he faces the bier from the sanctuary, all others meekly kneeling:

Priest:

Kýrie eléison
Christe eléison
Kýrie eléison

℣. Et ne nos indúcas in tentatiónem.
℟. Sed líbera nos a malo.

℣. A porta ínferi.
℟. Erue, Dómine, ánimam ejus.

℣. Requiéscat in pace.
℟. Amen.

℣. Dómine, exáudi orationem meam.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te véniat.

℣. Dóminus vobíscum.
℟. Et cum spíritu tuo.

Orémus.

Absólve, quǽsumus, Dómine, ániam famuli tui (vel fámulæ tuæ) N. ab omni vínculo delictórum : ut, in resurrectionis glória, inter Sanctos et eléctos tuos resuscitátus (-a) respíret.

Per Christum Dóminum nostrum.

℟. Amen.

Once these prayers have been said, one* or more Nocturn(s) of Matins of the Dead may be chanted by the Choir and may be followed by a chanting of Lauds of the Dead. If any part of these Offices is to be chanted, the Priest, with or without his
M.C., reverences the Altar and repairs to the sacristy, while the other Servers may remain seated at their places. They will not kneel or stand, as such chant is not liturgical. Meanwhile, the Celebrant may choose to say privately at least one* Nocturn of the Dead, together with Vespers of the Dead unless it has already been observed (usually the evening before at a Wake) Liturgically. Lauds of the Dead may or may not be read by the Celebrant. Vespers and one* Nocturn of Matins suffice to fulfil the liturgical requirement to pray for the Dead in the Office of the Dead. If no part of the Office of the Dead is to be chanted, the Priest will repair to the sedile to doff his cope and don black chasuble and maniple, and Mass begins immediately. Note that any Priest can agree to say Vespers of the Dead and one* Nocturn of the Dead privately to fulfil the liturgical requirement for praying the Office for the departed. This should be done between the time of death and the time of burial.

* _viz._ The Nocturn appointed for the appertaining weekday. The first is proper to Sundays, Mondays and Thursdays; the second, to Tuesdays and Fridays; the third, to Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Once the Subvenite and following two versicles and responses have been chanted (or the Antiphon chanted and the versicles and responses recited), the Rite stipulates that Matins of the Dead follow immediately, unless it has already been observed. Ideally, Vespers of the Dead should be chanted the evening before the day of the Funeral Mass, at six o’clock in the evening (traditionally, it closes the Wake). Matins should follow at midnight; Lauds, at dawn. In constant practice over the centuries, however, Matins and Lauds follow the Rite or Reception of the Body in the Church and are themselves followed next by the Funeral Mass.

Any commitment to observe the Office of the Dead for the repose of a soul is fulfilled by praying Vespers of the Dead plus the Nocturn of Matins of the Dead which has been assigned to the weekday during which the Funeral Mass is offered. Ideally, however, all three Nocturns of the Dead should be chanted by clerics in the sanctuary, followed by Lauds. Outside of basilicas, cathedrals, monasteries, convents and collegiate churches, it is more apt, however, publicly to chant only one Nocturn. In most parishes in Canada, not even this is commonly done, and Mass simply follows the Rite of Reception.

Should at least one Nocturn of the Dead be followed by Lauds of the Dead and be chanted or recited in the sanctuary by a cleric with other clerics or laics, the Canticle of Zachary is repeated at the end of Lauds and this is followed by the prayers said hereunder as all kneel meekly. If Lauds be prayed, two or four candles should be lit. It is appropriate in our congregation that the two Low Mass candles be lit for this after Matins is ended. If Lauds not be prayed after Matins, the Canticle of Zachary is not chanted and the following prayers are said immediately after the end of the (last) Nocturn that is sung. Notice some small differences between the following formulary and that given in the shaded box ut supra: the Kyrie is not chanted here and the oration ends with the longer close.

After reverencing the Altar, the Priest goes to the sedilia to remove cope and stole. He will pray the Office in cassock and surplice.

The Office having ended, the Priest goes to the bier and says in the vox clara:

†. Et ne nos indúcas in tentatiónem.
‡. Sed líbera nos a malo.

Our Father [continuing in silence: Who art in Heaven, Hallowed by Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us . . .]

†. And lead us not into temptation.
‡. But deliver us from evil.

℣. A porta ínferi.
℟. Erue, Dómine, ánimam ejus.
℣. Requiéscat in pace.
℟. Amen.
℣. Dómínem, exáudi oratiónem meam.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te véniat.
℣. Dóminus vobíscum.
とに. Et cum spíritu tuo.

Absólve, quǽsumus, Dómine, ánimam famuli tui (vel fámulae tuæ) N. ab omni vínculo delictórum : ut, in resurrectiónis glória, inter Sanctos et eléctos tuuos resuscitátus (-a) respíret. Per Dóminum nostrum Jesum Christum Fílium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitáte Spíritus Sancti, Deus: per ómnia sǽcula sǽculórum. .TIM. Amen.

Let us pray.
Absolve, O Lord, we beseech Thee, the soul of Thy servant/handmaid N., from every bond of sin: that, in the glory of the Resurrection, he/she may be raised up amid Thy saints and elect unto newness of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. _TIM. Amen.

Now the Priest goes to the sedilia to remove the surplice and don his Mass vestments. The correct number of candles is lit on the Altar unless Lauds has been said and Low Mass is to follow, both using the two low candles. At a Missa Cantata, four or six candles may be lighted; at a High Mass, six are lighted.
THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS: THE ORDINARY

THE PROCESSSION

STAND AS THE PROCESION ENTERS THE NAWE.
At a funeral Mass, the body of the departed soul will usually be conveyed into the church in procession following entry of the sacred ministers. There may be a procession at other Requiem Masses pertaining to this Missalette, whether the body is present in the nave or not.

During the Procession, bow to the Celebrant as he passes your pew. At a typical Sung Mass, the Servers will include a Thurifer, Crucifer, Acolytes, Master of Ceremonies and Celebrant.

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

The Choir sings the Introit to begin the Mass. Meanwhile, the Celebrant and Ministers recite in a vox mediocris [moderate voice] the preparatory prayers at the foot of the Altar.

PRAYERS AT THE FOOT OF THE ALTAR

Psalm 42 and its following Glory and following versicle and response are omitted at all Masses of the Dead.

THE CONFITEOR

Confiteor Deo omnipotenti. I confess to Almighty God. Misereatur tui omnipotens Deus, et May Almighty God have mercy upon dimissis peccatis tuis, perducat te ad thee, forgive thee thy sins and bring thee vitam æternam. to life everlasting. Amen.

CONFITEOR Deo omnipotenti, [BOWING DEEPLY THROUGHOUT] I CONFESS to Almighty God, to blessed beatæ Mariae semper Virgini, beato Michaël Archangelo, beato Joanni Baptistæ, sanctis Apostolis Petro et Paulo, omnibus Sanctis, et tibi, pater: quia peccavi nimis cogitatione, verbo et opere: [The breast is struck on the underlined words.] mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa. Ideo precor beatam Mariam semper Virginem, beatum Michaelum Archangelum, beatum Ioannem Baptistam, sanctos Apostolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et te, pater, orare pro me ad Dominum Deum nostrum.

Mary, ever-Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, to all the saints, and to thee, father, that I have sinned exceedingly, in thought, word and deed: [The breast is struck on the underlined words] through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore, I beseech blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the saints, and thee, father, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

The Celebrant joins his hands and pleads mercy while all the faithful remain bowed:

℣. Misereatur vestri omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis vestris, perducat vos ad vitam æternam.
℟. Amen.

The Servers and faithful unbow and the Priest imparts the absolution:

℣. Indulgentiam absolutionem et remissionem peccatorum nostrorum tribuat nobis omnipotens et misericors Dominus.
℟. Amen.

He bows his head and continues, while the faithful bow slightly:

℣. Deus, tu conversus vivificabis nos.
℟. Et plebs tua lætabitur in te.
℣. Ostende nobis, Domine, misericordiam tuam.
℟. Et salutare tuum da nobis.
℣. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.
℣. Dominus vobiscum.
℟. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Thou wilt turn, O God, and bring us to life.
And Thy people shall rejoice in Thee.
Show us, O Lord, Thy mercy.
And grant us Thy salvation.
O Lord, hear my prayer.
And let my cry come unto Thee.
The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit. [UNBOW]

The Celebrant extends and joins his hands and says (in the vox secreta):

℣. Oremus.
℟. Let us pray.

PRAYER FOR PURITY

Then, going up to the Altar, he says quietly (in the vox secreta):

AUFER a nobis, quæsumus, Domine, iniquitates nostras: ut ad Sancta sanctorum puris mereamur mentibus TAKE away from us our iniquities, we entreat Thee, O Lord, that with pure minds we may worthily enter into the

PRAYER FOR PEACE

He kisses the Altar in the middle, where the relics of the saints are enclosed, joins his hands and bows down over the Altar, continuing silently:

WE BESEECH THEE, O Lord, by the merits of Thy Saints, whose relics are here, and of all the Saints, that Thou wilt deign to pardon me all my sins. Amen.

INITIAL INCENSING OF THE ALTAR

There is no incensing of the Altar before the Introit at any Mass of the Dead.

THE INTROIT (4 Esdras 2. 34, 35)

The Celebrant makes the Sign of the Cross (†) over the Missal and not upon himself.

There is no Glory in the Introit. Using the vox mediocris, he repeats the Antiphon after reciting the Psalm verse.

REQUIEM æternam dona eis, Domine: et lux perpetua luceat eis.

ETERNAL rest grant unto them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. Psalm 64. 2-3. A hymn, O God, becometh Thee in Sion; and a vow shall be paid to Thee in Jerusalem: hear my prayer; all flesh shall come to Thee. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them.

THE KYRIE

The Choir and faithful sing (at a Sung Mass) the Kyrie, which the Celebrant says in the vox mediocris alternately with the Servers at the centre of the Altar or at the Epistle side. If the sung Kyrie is especially long, the Celebrant may go to the sedilia, in which case the faithful stand as he leaves the Altar, sit when he is seated and rise when he returns from thence.

Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy on us.
Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy on us.
Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy on us.
Christe, eleison. Christ, have mercy on us.
Christe, eleison. Christ, have mercy on us.
Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy on us.
Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy on us.

THE GLORIA

The Gloria is suppressed on all the Masses of the Dead.

The Celebrant kisses the Altar, and turning toward the faithful, sings or says aloud:

Dominus vobiscum. The Lord be with you.
The Celebrant returns to the Epistle horn and, raising his hands to the Missal, he sings the Collect(s) at a Sung Mass or, at a Spoken Mass, he says it/them in the vox clara:

Oremus.

Deus, cui proprium est misereri semper et parcere, te supplices exoramus pro anima famuli tuī (vel famulæ tuae) N., quam hodie de hoc sæculo migrare jussisti: ut, non tradas eam in manus inimici, neque obliviscaris in finem, sed jubeas eam a sanctis Angelis suscipi, et ad patriam paradisi perduci; ut quia in te speravit et credidit, non penas inferni sustineat, sed gaudia æterna possideat. Per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti, Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum. R. Amen.

O God, Whose property is ever to have mercy and to spare, we humbly entreat Thee on behalf of the soul of Thy servant/handmaid N., whom Thou hast bidden this day to pass out of this world: that Thou wouldst not deliver him/her into the hands of the enemy, nor forget him/her for ever, but command him/her to be taken up by the holy angels, and to be borne to our home in Paradise, that as he/she had put his/her faith and hope in Thee, he/she may not undergo the pains of Hell but may possess everlasting joys. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

SIT AT ANY SUNG MASS; OTHERWISE, REMAIN KNEELING.

THE EPISTLE (I Thessalonians 4.13-18)

Fratres: Nolumus vos ignorare de dormientibus, ut non contristemini, sicut et ceteri qui spem non habent. Si enim credimus quod Jesus mortuus est, et resurrexit; ita et Deus eos, qui dormierunt per Jesum, adducet cum eo. Hoc enim vobis dicimus in verbo Domini, quia nos, qui vivimus, qui residui sumus in adventum Domini, non præveniemus eos, qui dormierunt. Quoniam ipse Dominus in jussu, et in voce Archangeli, et in tuba Dei descendet de cœlo: et mortui, qui in Christo sunt, resurgent primi. Deinde nos, qui vivimus, qui relinquimus, simul rapiemur cum illis in nubibus obviam Christo in æra, et sic semper.

BRETHREN: We will not have you ignorant concerning them that are asleep, that you be not sorrowful, even as others who have no hope; for, if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, them who have slept through Jesus will God bring with Him. For this we say unto you in the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them who have slept. For the Lord Himself shall come down from Heaven, with commandment, and with the voice of an Archangel, and with the trumpet of God; and the dead who are in Christ shall rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, shall be taken up together with them in the clouds to meet Christ, into the air, and so shall cum Domino erimus. Itaque we be always with the Lord. Wherefore consolamini invicem in verbis istis. comfort ye one another with these words.

And the assistants respond:

Deo gratias. Thanks be to God.

THE GRADUAL
(4 Esdras 2. 34, 35)

The Celebrant reads the Gradual in a moderate voice.

REQUIEM æternam dona eis, ETERNAL rest grant unto them, O Domine: et lux perpetua luceat eis. Lord; and let perpetual light shine Psalm 111. 7. In memoria æterna upon them. Psalm 111. 7. The just erit justus: ab audítione mala non shall be in everlasting remembrance;
timebit. he shall not fear the evil hearing.

TRACT

The Celebrant continues in the vox mediocris so as to read the Tract.

ABSOLVE, Domine, animas ABSOLVE, O Lord, the souls of all omnium fidelium defunctorum ab the faithful departed from every omni vinculo delictorum. And, by the help of Et gratia Thy grace, may they be enabled tua illis succurrente, mereantur to escape the avenging judgement, evadere judicium ultionis. Et lucis and enjoy the bliss of everlasting æterne beatitudine perfrui.

THE SEQUENCE

This following Sequence may be said at all Masses of the Dead and is normally said at first- and second-class Requiem Masses. At Sung Masses, after the Celebrant has delivered it in a moderate voice, he may repair to the sedilia while the Choir finishes singing it.

DIES iræ, dies illa, DAY of wrath and doom impending,
Solvet sæculum in favilla: David’s word with Sibyl’s blending,
Teste David cum Sibylla. Heaven and earth in ashes ending.

Quantus tremor est futurus, O what fear man’s bosom rendeth, Quando Judex est venturus, When from Heaven the Judge descendeth, Cuncta stricte discussurus! On Whose sentence all dependeth.

Tuba, mirum spargens sonum, Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth,
Per sepulchra regionum, Through earth’s sepulchres it ringeth,
Coget omnes ante thronum. All before the throne it bringeth.

Mors stupebit, et natura, Death is struck, and nature quaking,
Cum resurget creatura, All creation is awaking, Judicanti responsura. To its Judge an answer making.
Liber scriptus proferetur, Lo, the book exactly worded,
In quo totum continetur, Wherein all hath been recorded,
Unde mundus judicetur. Thence shall judgement be awarded.

Judex ergo cum sedebit, When the Judge His seat attaineth, Quidquid latet, apparebit: And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nil inultum remanebit. Nothing unavenged remaineth.

Quid sum miser tunc dicturus? What shall I, frail man, be pleading?
Quem patronum rogaturus, Who for me be interceding,
Cum vix justus sit securus? When the just are mercy needing?

Rex tremendæ majestatis, King of majesty tremendous,
Qui salvandos salvas gratis, Who dost free salvation send us,
Salva me, fons pietatis. Fount of pity, then befriend us.

Recodare, Jesu pie, Think, kind Jesus, my salvation
Quod sum causa tuæ viæ: Caused Thy wondrous Incarnation, Ne me perdas illa die. Leave me not to reprobation.

Quærens me, sedisti lassus: Faint and weary Thou has sought me,
Redemisti, crucem passus: On the Cross of suffering bought me,
Tantus labor non sit cassus. Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

Juste Judex ultionis, Righteous Judge, for sin’s pollution,
Donum fac remissionis, Grant Thy gift of absolution,
Ante diem rationis. Ere that day of retribution.

Ingemisco, tamquam reus: Guilty now I pour my moaning, Culpa rubet vultus meus: All my shame with anguish owning, Supplicanti parce, Deus. Spare, O God, Thy suppliant groaning.

Qui Mariam absolvisti, Through the sinful woman shriven,
Et latronem exaudisti, Through the dying thief forgiven, Mihi quoque spem dedisti. Thou to me a hope has given.

Preces meæ non sunt dignæ; Worthless are my prayers and sighing,
Sed tu bonus fac benigne, Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
Ne perenni cremer igne. Rescue me from fires undying.

Inter oves locum præsta. With thy sheep a place provide me,
Et ab hœdis me sequestra, From the goats afar divide me,
Statuens in parte dextra. To Thy right hand do Thou guide me.
Confutatis maledictis. When the wicked are confounded,
Flammis acribus addictis, Doomed to flames of woe unbounded,
Voca me cum benedictis, Call me with Thy saints surrounded.

Oro supplex et acclinis, Low I kneel with heart’s submission,
Cor contritum quasi cinis, See, like ashes, my contrition,
Gere curam mei finis. Help me in my last condition.

Lacrimosa dies illa, Ah! that day of tears and mourning,
Qua resurget ex favilla. From the dust of earth returning,

Judicandus homo reus. Man, for judgement must prepare him,
Huic ergo, parce Deus: Spare, O God, in mercy, spare him,
Pie Jesu Domine, Lord, all-pitying, Jesu blest,
Dona eis requiem. Grant them Thine eternal rest.

BLESSING OF INCENSE BEFORE THE GOSPEL
There is no blessing of incense before the Gospel or censing of the Missal at any Mass of the Dead, and the Gospel is read without lights.

MUNDA COR MEUM
The Munda cor meum is said by the Celebrant (unless there be a Deacon at a Missa Solemnis, in which case the text differs slightly).

MUNDA COR MEUM ac labia mea, omnipotens Deus, qui labia Isaiæ Prophetæ calculo mundasti ignito: ita me tua grata miseratione dignare mundare, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne valeam nuntiare. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

CLEANSE MY HEART and my lips, O Almighty God, Who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a burning coal; through Thy gracious mercy so purify me that I may worthily proclaim Thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Jube, Domine benedicere and Dominus sit in corde meo are omitted at all Masses of the Dead.

THE GOSPEL
The Gospel is not incensed at any Mass of the Dead and is said or sung without lights. It is sung by the Celebrant at a Missa Cantata (or by the Deacon at a Missa Solemnis) or said in a clear voice at a Spoken Mass.

STAND.

[Make the Sign of the Cross on forehead, lips and heart at the Response.]

第三方 Dominus vobiscum. The Lord be with you.

第三方 Et cum spiritu tuo. And with thy spirit.

第三方 Sequentia (vel Initium) sancti Evangeliæ secundum N. The continuation (or beginning) of the holy Gospel according to N.

第三方 Gloria tibi, Domine. Glory to Thee, O Lord.

At that time: Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died: but now also I know that whatsoever Thou wilt ask of God, God will give it Thee. Jesus saith to her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith to Him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus saith to her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in Me, although he be dead, shall live; and every one that liveth and believeth in Me, shall not die for ever. Believest thou this? She saith to Him, Yea, Lord, I have believed that Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God, Who art come into this world.

At the end of the Gospel, the Assistants respond:

Laus tibi, Christe.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

The Celebrant does not kiss the book or make the response Per evangelica at Masses of the Dead.

THE SERMON

On rare occasions, a Sermon may be said at Masses of the Dead which do not include an Absolution over the black funeral pall. On occasions when there is to be an Absolution after Mass, the Sermon is said after the Placeat tibi near the end of Mass, and the Last Gospel is omitted. A Sermon will seldom be said at Daily Masses of the Dead. Wait for the Celebrant to reach the floor of the sanctuary and then SIT for the Sermon.

THE CREDO

The Creed is not said at any Mass of the Dead.
THE MASS OF THE FAITHFUL

The Mass of the Faithful is divided into three parts: Offertory, Canon and Communion Rite.

STAND OR REMAIN STANDING.

The Celebrant kisses the Altar, and turning to the faithful, sings or says clearly:

 Domino vobiscum.  The Lord be with you.
 Et cum spiritu tuo.  And with thy spirit.
 Oremus.  Let us pray.

THE OFFERTORY OF THE MASS

THE OFFERTORY ANTIPHON

The Choir sings the Offertory Antiphon, which is recited silently by the Celebrant.

SIT.

DOMINE Jesu Christe, Rex gloriarum, libera animas omnium fidelium defunctorum de pœnis inferni et de profundo lacu: libera eas de ore leonis, ne absorbent eas tarturus, ne cadant in obscurum: sed signifer sanctus Michael representet eas in lucem sanctam: Quam olim Abrahæ promisisti, et semini ejus. Hostias et preces tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus: tu suscipe pro animabus illis, quarum hoc dies memoriam facimus: fac eas, Domine, de morte transire ad vitam. Quam olim Abrahæ promisisti et semini ejus.

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from all the pains of hell and from the bottomless pit: deliver them from the lion's mouth, that hell not swallow them up, that they fall not into darkness, but let the standard-bearer, holy Michael, lead them into that holy light; which Thou didst promise of old to Abraham and to his seed. We offer to Thee, O Lord, sacrifices and prayers: do Thou receive them in behalf of those souls of whom we make memorial this day. Grant them, O Lord, to pass from death to that life; which Thou didst promise of old to Abraham and to his seed.

[The bell is rung once as a local custom in some places.]

SUSCIPE, SANCTE PATER,
omnipotens æterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tibi Deo meo vivo et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis et offensionibus et negligentiis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus, sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis vivis

ACCEPT, O HOLY FATHER,
Almighty and Eternal God, this spotless Host, which I, Thine unworthy servant, offer unto Thee, my living and true God, to atone for my countless sins, offences and negligences: on behalf of all here present and likewise for all faithful Christians, living and dead, that it may atque defunctis: ut mihi et illis proficiat ad salutem in vitam æternam. Amen.

Making the Sign of the Cross with the paten, he places the host upon the corporal. The wine and water are poured into the Chalice in remembrance of the water and blood which flowed from the side of Jesus when pierced by the soldier’s lance. At Masses of the Dead, the Celebrant does not make the Signum Crucis over the cruets when he blesses the water before it is mixed. However, he does bless the water, saying:

DEUS, qui humanæ substantiæ dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquæ et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostræ fieri dignatus est particeps Jesus Christus Filius tuus Dominus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus: per omnia sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

O GOD, Who, in creating man didst exalt his nature very wonderfully and yet more wonderfully didst establish it anew; by the Mystery signified in the mingling of this water and wine, grant us to have part in the Godhead of Him Who hath deigned to become a partaker of our humanity, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Returning to the middle of the Altar, the Celebrant takes the Chalice and offers it to God, saying silently:

OFFERIMUS TIBI, Domine, calicem salutaris, tuam deprecantes clementiam: ut in conspectu divinæ majestatis tuæ, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat. Amen.

WE OFFER UNTO THEE, O Lord, the Chalice of salvation, entreating Thy mercy that our offering may ascend with a sweet fragrance in the sight of Thy divine Majesty, for our own salvation, and for that of the whole world. Amen.

The Celebrant makes the Signum Crucis with the Chalice, places it upon the corporal, and covers it with the pall. With his hands joined upon the Altar, he bows slightly and says quietly:

IN SPIRITU HUMILITATIS, et in animo contrito suscipiamur a te, Domine: et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus.

HUMBLED IN SPIRIT and contrite of heart, may we find favour with Thee, O Lord: and may our Sacrifice be so offered this day in Thy sight as to be pleasing to Thee, O Lord God.

Raising his eyes and extending and then joining his hands, he makes the Signum Crucis over host and chalice, invoking the Holy Ghost silently:

VENI, sanctificator omnipotens, æterne Deus: et bene dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nomini præparatum.

COME, O Sanctifier, Almighty and Eternal God, and bless this sacrifice, which is prepared for the glory of Thy holy Name.

Should there be no incensing, skip the shaded area and proceed directly to the Lavabo.

THE OFFERTORY INCENSING

The Celebrant now usually blesses incense at a Sung Mass.

PER INTERCESSIONEM beati Michaelis Archangeli, stantis a dextris altaris incensi, et omnium electorum suorum, incensum istud dignetur

BY THE INTERCESSION of blessed Michael the Archangel, who standeth at the right side of the Altar of incense, and of all His Elect, may the Lord deign to

The Celebrant incenses the bread and wine:

INCENSUM istud a te benedictum ascendet ad te, Domine: et descendat super nos misericordia tua.

Then he incenses the Altar:

DIRIGATUR, Domine, oratio mea, sicut incensum, in conspectu tuo: elevatio manuum meorum sacrificium vespertinum. Pone, Domine, custodiam ori meo, et ostium circumstantiae labiis meis: ut non declinet cor meum in verba malitiae, ad excusandas, excusationes in peccatis.

Returning the thurible, the Celebrant says:

ACCENDAT in nobis Dominus ignem sui amoris, et flammam æternæ caritatis. Amen.

The Celebrant alone is now censed. At Masses of the Dead, the other Clergy, the Servers, the Choir and the Congregation are not censed.

THE LAVABO

The Celebrant washes his fingers as a sign of purity, reciting Psalm 25. 6-12 silently:

I WILL wash my hands among the innocent, and I will encompass Thine Altar, O Lord. That I may hear the voice of Thy praise, and tell of all Thy wondrous works. I have loved, O Lord, the beauty of Thy house, and the place where Thy glory dwelleth. Take not away my soul, O God, with the wicked, nor my life with men of blood, in whose hands are iniquities, their right hand is filled with gifts. But as for me, I have walked in my innocence; redeem me, and have mercy on me. My foot hath stood in the right way; in the churches I will bless Thee, O Lord.

The usual Glory which follows next is omitted at all Masses of the Dead.

THE PRAYER TO THE HOLY TRINITY

Bowing down before the middle of the Altar, he joins his hands, saying in the vox secreta:

SUSCIPE, SANCTA TRINITAS, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrectionis et benedictionis sui. RECIPE, O HOLY TRINITY, this oblation which we make to Thee in memory of the Passion, Resurrection, ascensionis Jesu Christi Domini nostri: and Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ; and in honour of blessed Mary ever-Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of these and of all the saints. To them let it bring honour, and to us salvation, and may they whom we are commemorating here on earth deign to plead for us in Heaven. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ORATE FRATRES

He kisses the Altar; then, turning toward the faithful, he says the first two words in a clear voice and then faces the Altar and joins his hands while concluding the prayer in the vox mediocris.

וכח ORATE FRATRES: ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem. ORAY, PRAY, BRETHREN, that my Sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

Raising his voice, the Celebrant says in the vox clara:

W. ORATE FRATRES: ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem. ORAY, PRAY, BRETHREN, that my Sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

V. ORAY. Oremus.

Raising his voice, the Celebrant says in the vox clara:

Let ORAY. Let us pray.

THE SECRET

Then with outstretched hands, the Celebrant says the Secret(s) silently:

Propitiare quæsumus, Domine, animæ famuli tui (vel famulæ tuae) N., pro qua hostiam laudis tibi immolamus, majestatem tuam suppliciter deprecantes: ut per hæc piæ placationis officia, pervenire mereatur ad requiem sempiternam. Per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti, Deus: per omnia sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

Be merciful, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to the soul of Thy servant/handmaid N., for whom we offer to Thee the sacrifice of praise, humbly entreating Thy Majesty: that, by this service of pious atonement, he/she may deserve to attain to eternal rest. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who is God, and liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

He concludes in a vox clara:

W. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum. ORAY. For ever and ever.

R. Amen.
STAND for the Preface at any Sung Mass; otherwise, remain SEATED.

THE DIALOGUE TO THE PREFACE

Holding his hands over the Altar, the Celebrant chants (or says in a clear voice):

 Vox: Dominus vobiscum.
 Rex: Et cum spiritu tuo.

Raising his hands:

 Vox: Lift up your hearts.
 Rex: We have lifted them up to the Lord.

Joining his hands before his breast, he bows:

 Vox: Sursum corda.
 Rex: Habemus ad Dominum.

 Vox: Gratias agamus [BOW] Domino nostro.
 Rex: Dignum et justum est.

THE PREFACE FOR THE DEAD

The following Preface is sung or said at all Masses of the Dead.
With his hands extended, the Celebrant chants or reads aloud the Preface:

VERE dignum et justum est, æquum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere:
Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, æterne Deus, per Christum Dominum nostrum. In quo nobis spes beatæ resurrectionis effulsit: ut quos contristat certa moriendi conditio, eosdem consoletur futuræ immortalitatis promissio.
Tuis enim fidelibus, Domine, vita mutatur, non tollitur: et dissoluta terrestris hujus incolatus domo, æterna in cœlis habitatio comparatur. Et ideo cum Angelis et Archangelis, cum Thronis et Dominationibus, cumque omnia militia cælestis exercitus, hymnum gloriæ tuæ canimus, sine fine dicentes:

IT IS truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to Thee, holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, through Christ our Lord: in Whom the hope of a blessed resurrection hath beamed upon us: so that those who are saddened by the certainty of dying may be consoled by the promise of a future deathless life. For to Thy faithful people, Lord, life is changed, not taken away; and when the home of this earthly sojourn is dissolved, an eternal dwelling is made ready in Heaven. And therefore with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominations, and with all the hosts of the Heavenly army, we sing a hymn to Thy praise, evermore saying:

THE SANCTUS

The Celebrant again joins his hands, and bowing, says the Sanctus in the vox clara, which the Choir and the faithful sing at Sung Masses. At the Benedictus qui venit, make the Sign of the Cross. The sacring bell is rung thrice at the Sanctus.

KNEEL.
THE CANON OF THE MASS

The Celebrant, extending, raising and joining his hands, and then raising his eyes towards Heaven and bowing low over the Altar, begins the Canon, saying it entirely in the vox secreta:

FOR THE CHURCH

TE IGITUR, clementissime Pater, per Jesum Christum, Filium tuum, Dominum nostrum, suppllices rogamus ac petimus, uti accepta habeas et benedicas, hæc ✝ dona, hæc ✝ munera, hæc ✝ sancta sacrificia illibata, in primis, quæ tibi offerimus pro Ecclesia tua sancta catholica: quam pacificare, custodire, adunare, et regere digneris toto orbe terrarum: una cum famulo tuo Papa nostro N. et Antistite nostro N. et omnibus orthodoxis, atque catholicæ et apostolicae fidei cultoribus.

MOST MERCIFUL FATHER, we humbly pray and beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord, to accept and bless these ✝ gifts, these ✝ presents, these holy unspotted ✝ Sacrifices, which we offer up to Thee, in the first place, for Thy Holy Catholic Church, that it may please Thee to grant her peace, and to preserve, unite and govern her throughout the world; as also for Thy servant N. our Pope and N. our bishop, and for all orthodox believers and all who profess the Catholic and Apostolic faith.

COMMEMORATION OF THE LIVING

MEMENTO, DOMINE, famulorum famularumque tuarum N. et N. [BOW] et omnium circumstantium, quorum tibi fides cognita est et nota devotio, pro quibus tibi offerimus: vel qui tibi offerunt hoc sacrificium laudis, pro se suisque omnibus: pro redemptione animarum suarum, pro spe salutis et incolumitatis suæ: tibiue reddunt vota sua aeterno Deo, vivo et vero.

BE MINDFUL, O LORD, of Thy servants and handmaids, N. and N., [BOW] and of all here present, whose faith and devotion are known to Thee, for whom we offer, or who offer up to Thee, this Sacrifice of praise for themselves and all those dear to them, for the redemption of their souls and the hope of their safety and salvation: who now pay their vows to Thee, the eternal, living and true God.
INVOCATION OF THE SAINTS: THE COMMUNICANTES

IN COMMUNION with, and honouring the memory, in the first place, of the glorious ever-Virgin Mary, Mother of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ; also, blessed Joseph, her Spouse; and likewise of Thy blessed Apostles and Martyrs, Peter and Paul, Andrew, James, John, Thomas, James, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Simon and Thaddeus; Linus, Cletus, Clement, Sixtus, Cornelius, Cyprian, Lawrence, Chrysogonus, John and Paul, Cosmas and Damian, and of all Thy saints.

Grant for the sake of their merits and prayers that, in all things, we may be guarded and helped by Thy protection.

He joins his hands, saying:

Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONSECRATION

OBLATION OF THE VICTIM TO GOD

The Celebrant spreads both hands over the oblation as the bell is rung once:

WE THEREFORE beseech Thee, O Lord, graciously to accept this oblation of our service and that of Thy whole household, granting them remission of all their sins: Order our days in Thy peace, and command that we be rescued from eternal damnation and numbered in the flock of Thine elect. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPICLESIS

INVOCATION OF THE HOLY GHOST TO BLESS THE OFFERINGS

In most Western traditional Rites of Mass, as here, the Epiclesis occurs before the Consecration. In the Traditional Roman Mass, the Holy Ghost is not invoked by Name.

QUAM OBLATIONEM tu, Deus, in omnibus, quæsumus, bene dictam, adscrip tam, ra x tam, rationabilem, acceptabilemque facere digneris: ut nobis Cor pus, et San guis fiat dilectissimi Filii tui Domini nostri Jesu Christi.

HUMBLY WE PRAY Thee, O God, be pleased to make this same offering wholly blessed, to consecrate it and approve it, making it reasonable and acceptable, that it may become for us the Body and Blood of Thy dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.
WORDS OF CONSECRATION AND ELEVATION

QUI PRIDIE quam pateretur, acceptit panem in sanctas ac
venerabiles manus suas, et elevatis oculis in cœlum ad te Deum Patrem suum omnipotentem, tibi gratias
agens, bene dixit, fregit, deditque discipulis suis, dicens: Accipite, et manducate ex hoc omnes.

WHO, the day before He suffered, took bread into His Holy and venerable hands, and having lifted
His eyes to Heaven, to Thee, God,
His Almighty Father, giving thanks to Thee, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying:
Take and eat ye all of this.

Now the Priest bows low and pronounces the Words of Consecration slowly and without pausing.

HOC EST ENIM
CORPUS MEUM.

FOR THIS IS MY BODY.

The Celebrant genuflects to adore the Sacred Host; rising, he elevates It ; and then, placing It on the corporal, genuflects again to adore. In Masses having incense, at the Elevation, the Thurifer imparts three double-swings of incense. From this point, except upon taking the Sacred Host, the Priest never disjoins his fingers and thumbs until he washes his hands (after communicating the people). At the Elevation, it is customary for the faithful to bow the neck and say silently, My Lord and my God. Then, uncovering the Chalice and taking it with both hands, the Celebrant says:

SIMILI modo, postquam cœnatum
est, accipiens et hunc præclarum
Calicem in sanctas ac venerabiles manus suas: item tibi gratias agens, bene dixit, deditque discipulis suis, dicens: Accipite, et bibite ex eo omnes.

IN LIKE manner, after He had supped, taking also into His holy and venerable hands this goodly Chalice, giving thanks to Thee, He blessed it, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Take and drink ye all of this.

HIC EST ENIM CALIX
SANGUINIS MEI, NOVI ET
ÆTERNI TESTAMENTI:
MYSTERIUM FIDEI:
QUI PRO VOBIS ET PRO
MULTIS EFFUNDETUR IN REMISSIONEM PECCATORUM.

FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF
MY BLOOD, OF THE NEW AND
ETERNAL TESTAMENT: THE MYSTERY OF FAITH: WHICH SHALL BE SHED FOR YOU
AND FOR MANY UNTO THE REMISSION OF SINS.

THE MEMORIAL

Hæc quotiescumque feceritis, in mei memoriam facietis.

As often as ye shall do these things, ye shall do them in remembrance of Me.

Now the Priest says in a low voice:

The Celebrant genuflects, ele vates the Chalice and, setting It down, he covers It and genuflects to adore again. At Masses with incense, it is imparted in three double-wings of the thurible. At the Elevation, it is customary for faithful to bow the neck and say silently Be mindful, O Lord, of Thy creature, whom Thou hast redeemed by Thy most Precious Blood.
OBLATION OF THE VICTIM TO GOD

With hands held apart, the Celebrant proceeds:

UNDE et memores, Domine, nos servi tui, sed et plebs tua sancta, ejusdem Christi Filii tui Domini nostri tam beatæ passionis, nec non et ab inferis resurrectionis, sed et in cælos gloriösæ ascensionis: offerimus præclarae majestati tuæ de tuis donis ac datis, hostiam sanctam, hostiam immaculatam, Panem sanctum vitæ æternæ, et Calicem salutis perpetuæ.

PLEA FOR ACCEPTANCE OF OUR OFFERING

DEIGN to look upon them with a favourable and gracious countenance, and to accept them as Thou didst accept the offerings of Thy just servant Abel, and the sacrifice of our Patriarch Abraham, and that which Thy high priest Melchisedech offered up to Thee, a holy Sacrifice, an immaculate victim.

PLEA FOR GRACES AND BLESSINGS

Bowing down, with hands joined and placed upon the Altar, the Celebrant says:

HUMBLY, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, to command that these our offerings be carried by the hands of Thy holy Angel to Thine Altar on high in the sight of Thy divine Majesty, so that those of us who shall receive the most sacred Body and Blood of Thy Son by partaking thereof from this Altar may be filled with every grace and Heavenly blessing. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMMEMORATION OF THE DEAD

The Priest offers the Blessed Sacrament for the comfort of the souls detained in Purgatory, and invokes the saints. Pray for deceased relatives and friends here.

MEMENTO etiam, Domine, famulorum famularumque tuarum N. et N., qui nos BE MINDFUL, also, O Lord, of Thy servants and handmaids N. and N. who præcesserunt cum signo fidei, et dormi-unt in somno pacis. Ipsis, Domine, et omnibus in Christo quiescentibus, locum refrigeriī, lucis et pacis, ut indulgeas, deprecamur. [BOW] Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

have gone before us with the sign of faith and who sleep the sleep of peace. To these, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light, and peace. [BOW]
Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

* * *
PLEA FOR ETERNAL HAPPINESS

Striking his breast once and raising his voice for the first three words, the Celebrant continues:

NOBIS QUOQUE PECCATORIBUS famulis tuis, de multitudine miserationum tuarum sperantibus, partem aliquam et societatem donare digeris, cum tuis sanctis Apostolis et Martyribus: cum Joanne, Stephano,
Matthia, Barnaba, Ignatio, Alexandro,
Marcellino, Petro, Felicitate, Perpetua,
Agatha, Lucia, Agnete, Cæcilia,
Anastasia et omnibus Sanctis tuis: intra quorum nos consortium, non æstimator meriti, sed veniæ, quæsumus, largitor admitte

TO US ALSO, Thy sinful servants, who put our trust in the multitude of Thy mercies, vouchsafe to grant some part and fellowship with Thy Holy Apostles and Martyrs: with John, Stephen,
Matthias, Barnabas, Ignatius, Alexander,
Marcellinus, Peter, Felicity, Perpetua,
Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia and all Thy saints. Into their company we beseech Thee to admit us, not considering our merits, but freely pardoning our offences.

The Celebrant joins his hands:

Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

Through Christ our Lord.

THE FINAL DOXOLOGY

The Celebrant thrice signs the Cross over the Host and the Chalice, saying:

PER quem hæc omnia, Domine, semper bona creas, sanctificas, vivificas, benedicis, et praestas nobis.

THROUGH Whom, O Lord, Thou dost create, sanctify, quicken, bless and bestow upon us all these good things.

THE MINOR ELEVATION

He uncovers the Chalice and genuflects. Then, taking the Sacred Host in his right hand, and holding the Chalice in his left, he makes the Sign of the Cross over the Chalice thrice and then twice more between himself and the Chalice.

Per ipsum, et cum ipso et in ipso est tibi Deo Patre omnipotenti, in unitate Spiritus Sancti, omnis honor et gloria:

Now the Celebrant replaces the Host and covers the Chalice. He genuflects again, raising his voice to say:

Per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

For ever and ever.

Amen.
THE COMMUNION RITE OF HOLY MASS

THE PATER NOSTER

STAND AT SUNG MASSES; OTHERWISE, REMAIN KNEELING.

The Priest joins his hands and chants or says clearly:

OREMUS:
Præceptis salutaribus moniti, et divina institutione formati, audemus dicere:

LET US PRAY.
Taught by our Saviour's command and formed by the word of God, we dare to say:

OUR FATHER, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation.
R. But deliver us from evil.

The priest concludes silently:

V. Amen.
V. Amen.

THE EMBOLISM

Taking the paten between his first and second finger, the Priest says the Embolism silently:

LIBERA NOS, quæsumus, Domine, ab omnibus malis, præteritis, præsentibus et futuris: et intercedente beata et gloriosa semper Virgine Dei Genitrice Maria, cum beatissimis Apostolis tuis Petro et Paulo, atque Andrea, et omnibus Sanctis, da propitius pacem in diebus nostris: ut, ope misericordiæ tuæ ædifici, et a peccato simus semper liberi, et ab omni perturbatione securi.

DELIVER US, we beseech Thee, O Lord, from all evils, past, present and to come; and by the intercession of the blessed and glorious Mary, ever-Virgin, Mother of God, together with Thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and Andrew, and all the Saints, mercifully grant us peace in our days, that through the bounteous help of Thy mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all disquiet.

THE FRACTION

He places the paten under the Sacred Host, uncovers the Chalice, and genuflects; rising, he breaks the Host over the Chalice saying in a vox secreta:

Per eundem Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum.

Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.

Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus.

Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God.

He concludes aloud:

V. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum.
R. Amen.
THE PAX

He makes the Sign of the Cross with a small Particle over the Chalice, saying in a vox mediocris:

℣. Pax ☧ Domini sit ☧ semper vobis ☧ cum.
℟. Et cum spiritu tuo.

May the peace ☧ of the Lord be ☧ always ☧ with you.
And with thy spirit.

THE COMMINGLING OF THE SACRED SPECIES

He places the Particle in the Chalice, saying silently:

HÆC commixtio et consecratio
Corporis et Sanguinis Domini nostri Jesu Christi, fiat accipientibus nobis in vitam æternam. Amen.

MAY this mingling and hallowing of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ be for us who receive it a source of eternal life. Amen.

THE AGNUS DEI

The Celebrant covers the Chalice, genuflects, and then bows down to say the Agnus Dei, which the Choir and the faithful sing.

AGNUS DEI, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona eis requiem.
AGNUS DEI, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona eis requiem.
AGNUS DEI, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona eis requiem sempiternam.

LAMB OF GOD, Who takest away the sins of the world, grant them rest.
Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world, grant them rest.
Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world, grant them eternal rest.

KNEEL AT A SUNG MASS; OTHERWISE, REMAIN KNEELING.

THE PRAYER FOR PEACE

At Masses of the Dead, the Prayer for Peace is not said (and, at High Masses, nor is the Kiss of Peace which normally follows it).

THE PRAYER FOR SANCTIFICATION

With joined hands resting on the Altar and his eyes directed toward the Sacrament, bowing, he says the following two prayers in the vox secreta:

DOMINE Jesu Christe, Fili Dei vivi, O LORD Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, Who, by the will of the Father and the co-operation of the Holy Ghost, hast, by Thy death, given life to the world: deliver me by this, Thy most sacred Body and Blood, from all my iniquities and from every evil; make me cling always to Thy commandments, and permit me never to be separated from Thee. Who with the same God, the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest, God, world without end. men.
THE PRAYERS AT THE COMMUNION:
THE COMMUNION OF THE PRIEST

He genuflects, and taking the Host, says quietly:

PANEM cœlestem accipiam, et nomen Domini invocabo.
I WILL take the Bread of Heaven, and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

Striking his breast, he says the Domine, non sum dignus three times, beginning audibly:

DOMINE, NON SUM DIGNUS, ut intres sub tectum meum: sed tantum dic verbo, et sanabitur anima mea.

LORD, I AM NOT WORTHY that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

Making the Sign of the Cross with the Host over the paten, he says in a vox secreta:

CORPUS DOMINI nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam meam in vitam aeternam. Amen.

MAY THE BODY OF OUR LORD Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

He uncovers the Chalice, genuflects, collects any Fragments remaining and purifies the paten over the Chalice, saying silently:

QUID retribuam Domino pro omnibus quæ retribuit mihi? Calicem salutaris accipiam, et nomen Domini invocabo. Laudans invocabo Dominum, et ab inimicis meis salvus ero.

WHAT return shall I make to the Lord for all the things that He hast given unto me? I will take the Chalice of salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord. I will call upon the Lord and give praise: and I shall be saved from mine enemies.

He makes the Sign of the Cross with the Chalice, while saying silently:

SANGUIS Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam meam in vitam aeternam. Amen.

MAY THE BLOOD of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

If the people are to be communicated, Mass is now 'suspended' for this.

In some places, the Servers say a second Confiteor before being communicated.

The Celebrant genuflects, elevates a Particle of the Host, turns to the faithful and says aloud:

ECCE AGNUS DEI, ecce qui tollit peccata mundi. Him who taketh away the sins of the world.

The Communicants adore the Sacred Host and strike their breasts three times (while the bells are rung thrice in some places) saying:
DOMINE, NON SUM DIGNUS, ut LORD, I AM NOT WORTHY that Thou intres sub tectum meum: sed tantum shouldst enter under my roof; but only say dic verbo, et sanabitur anima mea. the word, and my soul shall be healed.

The Celebrant then goes to the Altar rail and says to each communicant in the vox mediocris: CORPUS DOMINI nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam tuam in vitam æternam. Amen.

MAY THE BODY OF OUR LORD Jesus Christ preserve your soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

Those attending are reminded that only Baptized Catholics who are in the state of grace and have observed the Eucharistic Fast may receive Holy Communion. It is a precept of the Church that Holy Communion be received at least once every year. Traditionally, this was to be done on or after Ash Wednesday and before Trinity Sunday. The Blessed Sacrament is received in the kneeling position (unless there be a disability) and only on the tongue. The Communicant does not say Amen before or after receiving. Communicants return to the pews to kneel for a prayer of Thanksgiving, together with those who have received a spiritual communion.* They sit when this prayer is ended. Mass resumes after the congregation is communicated.

*ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION:
O my Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the holy Sacrament of the Altar. I love Thee above all things and I desire to receive Thee into my soul. Since I cannot (or do not) now receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace Thee and I unite myself to Thee as if Thou wert already there. Never permit me to be separated from Thee.

THE ABLUTION PRAYERS

SIT AFTER FINISHING YOUR THANKSGIVING.
Wine is poured into the Chalice; the Celebrant drinks it and says silently:
QUOD ore sumpsimus, Domine, pura mente capiamus: et de munere temporali fiat nobis remedium sempiternum.

GRANT, O Lord, that what we have taken with our mouth, we may receive with a pure mind; and that, from a temporal gift, it may become for us an eternal remedy.

Wine and water are poured into the Chalice over the fingers of the Celebrant, who says silently:

MAY THY BODY, O Lord, which I have received and Thy Blood which I have drunk, cleave to my inmost parts, and grant that no stain of sin remain in me, whom these pure and holy Sacraments have refreshed. Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.
THE COMMUNION ANTIPHON

During the distribution of Holy Communion, the Choir sings the Communion Antiphon, which is later recited silently by the Celebrant at the Epistle horn of the Altar.

He returns to the middle of the Altar, kisses the Altar, and then turns to the faithful and says aloud or sings:

℣. Dominus vobiscum.
℟. Et cum spiritu tuo.
℣. Oremus.

THE POSTCOMMUNION

The Celebrant returns to the Epistle horn and sings or says aloud the Postcommunion(s):

℣. Dominus vobiscum.
℟. Et cum spiritu tuo.

THE DISMISSAL

At all Masses of the Dead, the Ite, Missa est versicle and its response is replaced by the following plea on behalf of the Dead, for which the Priest does not turn to face the people but continues to face the Altar.

The Dismissal is then sung or said aloud.

℣. Requiescant in pace.
℟. Amen.

℣. May they rest in peace.
℟. Amen.

THE PLACEAT TIBI

KNEEL.

Bowing before the Altar, the Celebrant pleads silently that God may accept the Sacrifice to effect the forgiveness of particular sins. This prayer reiterates the propitiatory nature of the Sacrifice as defined at the Council of Trent. Its content is essential and infallible teaching:

PLACEAT TIBI, sancta Trinitas, obsequium servitutis meæ: et præsta; ut sacrificium, quod oculus MAY THE TRIBUTE of my homage be pleasing to Thee, O most holy Trinity. Grant that the Sacrifice which I, unworthy as I am, tuæ majestatis indignus obtuli, tibi sit acceptabile, mihique et omnibus, pro quibus illud obtuli, sit, te miserante, propitiabile. Per Christum all for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LAST BLESSING

There is no Last Blessing at any Mass of the Dead. The Priest kisses the Altar and proceeds to say the Greeting and following Last Gospel.

THE LAST GOSPEL: St. John 1. 1-14

If a black funeral pall is present at the head of the nave or spread in the sanctuary, go to “(THE SERMON FOR [A] PARTICULAR FAITHFUL)”

The Celebrant traces the Signum Crucis on the Altar and then on his forehead, lips and breast, the people doing the same. Then he continues in the vox mediocris:

STAND.

Dominus vobiscum.
Et cum spiritu tuo.
Initium Sancti Evangelii secundum Joannem.
Gloria tibi, Domine.
Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Joannes. Hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. Erat lux vera, quæ illuminat omnem hominem venientem in hunc mundum. In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. In propria venit, et sui eum non receperunt. Quotquot autem receperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his, qui credunt in nomine ejus: qui non ex sanguinibus, neque ex voluntate carnis, neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe in His Name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

GENUFLECT

ET VERBUM CARO FACTUM EST
et habitavit in nobis: et vidimus gloriam ejus, gloriam quasi Unigentì a Patre, plenum gratiæ et veritatis. Deo gratias.

AND THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH

and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as it were, of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. Thanks be to God.

RECESSION

If there be no pall spread over a coffin or catafalque or bier or over the sanctuary floor, there will follow a recession through the nave in the case of a Sung Mass. In the case of a Low Mass (possibly including processional and recessional hymns), there may be a short recession down the central aisle and across the half-aisle to the hall doors; or there may be simply an exit directly from sanctuary to sacristy. At any recession through the nave, bow to the Priest as he passes your pew.

(THE SERMON FOR [A] PARTICULAR FAITHFUL)

At Requiem Masses and even at a Daily Mass for the Dead (if this should be offered for a particular person or persons), the Priest may deliver a Sermon here before imparting the Absolution over the black pall. Wait for the Celebrant to reach the floor of the sanctuary and then SIT for the Sermon.

If a Sermon is not to be said but an Absolution is nevertheless to close the Mass, after the Placeat tibi, the Celebrant re-vests at the sedilia and then imparts the blessing over the pall.

If the body is present, go to A. near the foot of page 26. If the body is not present, go to page 30.
THE ABSOLUTION AFTER A REQUIEM MASS

After any Requiem Mass, even the fourth-class Daily Mass of the Dead, an absolution may be imparted over a black pall set in place on the floor of the sanctuary or over a catafalque or bier located at the head of the nave. (This may also be done on All Souls' Day for all the faithful departed.) The pall may be imposed over a coffin which, in turn, is set on a catafalque (a bier). The coffin may entomb the body of a departed soul or it may be empty. The pall may even be spread over a bier when there is no coffin placed upon it at all. Finally, it may be spread on the sanctuary floor. A sensible standard is to have the body present under the pall for the single first-class Funeral Mass granted to each soul by the Church and also to have an Absolution with no body present for the second-class Mass on the day of Burial (should this follow the Funeral Mass), for the commemorative Requiem Mass on the anniversary of death or burial, and for the first or sole Mass on All Souls' Day.

In all these cases, the Absolution follows either a Sermon to honour the departed soul or else the Placeat tibi, which would immediately precede such a Sermon. In such cases, at Mass, there is no Last Blessing and no Last Gospel.

Following are the two forms of Absolution to be followed at a Requiem Mass for a faithful. The Absolution to be used on All Souls' Day is a slight variation of the second one hereunder, the changes only involving the prayers to be said by the Priest in recession back to the sacristy. This will be provided by insert with our "Missalette for Masses of the Dead".

A. THE ABSOLUTION OVER THE BIER
WHEN THE BODY IS PRESENT

When a black pall has been spread over a catafalque or bier at the head of the nave, the body being present, the following Rite of Absolution is imparted.

The people REMAIN SEATED while the Celebrant, led by the M.C., repairs to the sedilia, where he doffs his chasuble and maniple and dons his cope with the assistance of Acolytes (if present) and M.C. The Crucifer takes the processional cross to the west end of the bier and turns to face the Altar. The Celebrant goes to centre so as to stand facing the catafalque at its east end. As he approaches the bier, STAND.

The Celebrant imparts the following Rite of Absolution over the pall.
Non intres in judicium cum servo tuo, Domine, quia nullus apud te justificabitur homo, nisi per te omnium peccatorum ei tribuatur remissio. Non ergo eum, quæsumus, tua judicalis sententia premat, quem tibi vera supplicatio fidei christianæ commendat: sed, gratia tua illi succurente, mereatur evadere judicium ultionis, qui dum viveret, insignitus est signaculo sanctæ Trinitatis: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculorum.

℟. Amen.

Enter not into judgement with Thy servant, O Lord; for, save Thou grant him forgiveness of all his sins, no man shall be justified in Thy sight. Wherefore, suffer not, we beseech Thee, the sentence Thou pronouncest in judgement upon one whom the faithful prayer of Christian people commends to Thee, to be a doom which shall crush him utterly. Rather, succour him by Thy gracious favour, that he may escape Thine avenging justice who, in his lifetime, was signed with the seal of the Holy Trinity: Who livest and reignest, world without end. Ȝ. Amen.

Then the following Responsory is sung, with versicles and responses sung antiphonally by two groups of choristers or or else all the chant is sung by one cantor (or it may even be recited by the Priest, a server making the responses); and then the Pater, delivered mostly silently, is said by the Priest alone:

ǹ. Libera me, Domine, de morte æterna, in die illa tremenda:

Quando cœli movendi sunt et terra: Dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem.

℣. Tremens factus sum ego, et timeo, dum discussio venerit, atque Ventura ira.

ǹ. Quando cœli movendi sunt et terra: Dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem.

℣. Dies illa, dies iræ, calamitatis et miseriæ: dies magna et amara valde.

ǹ. Dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem.

℣. Requiem æternam dona ei, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat ei.Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon him/her ..

First Cantor or Choir:
Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy.

Second Cantor or Choir:
Christe, eleison. Christ, have mercy.

All Choristers:
Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy.

Priest:

Then the Priest, accompanied, if possible, by Acolytes, walks twice around the pall in the counter-clockwise direction, aspersing the bier from left to centre to right. Then he does likewise whilst incensing the bier. As he proceeds (or beforehand if need be), he says the following, the M.C. making the responses:

℣. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem. And lead us not into temptation.

℣. Sed libera nos a malo. But deliver us from evil.
℟. Sed libera nos a malo. But deliver us from evil.

℣. A porta inferi. From the gate of Hell.
℟. A porta inferi. From the gate of Hell.

℣. Erue, Domine, animam ejus. Deliver his/her soul, O Lord.
℟. Erue, Domine, animam ejus. Deliver his/her soul, O Lord.

℣. Requiescat in pace. May he/she rest in peace.
℟. Requiescat in pace. May he/she rest in peace.

℣. Domine, exaudi orationem meam. O Lord, hear my prayer.
℟. Domine, exaudi orationem meam. O Lord, hear my prayer.

℣. Et clamor meus ad te veniat. And let my cry come unto Thee.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te veniat. And let my cry come unto Thee.
℣. Dominus vobiscum.  ℛ. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Now the Priest imparts the Absolution over the Bier.

Deus, cui proprium est misereri semper et parere, te supplices exoramus pro anima famuli tui (vel famulæ tuæ), N. quam Hodie de hoc sæculo migrare jussisti: ut non tradas eam in manus inimici, neque obliviscaris in finem, sed jubeas eam a sanctis Angelis suscipi, et ad patriam paradisi perduci; ut, quia in te speravit et credit, non pœnas inferni sustineat, sed gaudia æterna possideat. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. ℛ. Amen.

O God, Whose property is ever to have mercy and to spare, we humbly entreat Thee on behalf of the soul of Thy servant/handmaid N., whom Thou hast bidden this day to pass out of this world: that Thou wouldst not deliver him/her into the hands of the enemy, nor forget him/her for ever, but command him/her to be taken up by the holy angels, and to be borne to our home in Paradise, that as he/she had put his/her faith and hope in Thee, he/she may not undergo the pains of Hell but may possess everlasting joys. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. ℛ. Amen.

Now the Priest and his Servers begin the recession out of the church as the Choir begins to chant the In Paradisum. The Choristers will follow the cross into the narthex and out of the Church. They are followed by the Celebrant and his Assistants, the body and the mourners. The crucifix and pall are removed from the coffin in the narthex and flowers or a flag are restored to it. Once the coffin is put inside the hearse, the Priest asperses it in silence before it departs.

During the conveyance of the body to the hearse, the In Paradisum is chanted:

In paradísum * dedúcant te Angeli: may the angels lead thee into in tuo advéntu suscípiant te Mártyres, et perdúcant te in civitátem sanctam Jerúsalem, Chorus Angelórum te suscípiat, et cum Lázaro quondam páupere ætérnam hábeas réquiem.

In Paradisum

Paradise: may the martyrs receive thee at Thy coming, and lead thee into the holy City of Jerusalem. May the Choir of angels receive thee, and mayest thou have eternal rest with Lazarus, who once was poor.
B. THE ABSOLUTION OVER THE PALL
WHEN THE BODY IS NOT PRESENT

When, the body not being present, a black pall has been spread at the head of the nave over a bier or over an empty coffin or over a catafalque or other structure or is just spread on the sanctuary floor, the following Rite of Absolution is imparted.

At the end of the Mass (if no Sermon follow it ) or at the end of the closing Sermon, the Choir begins to chant the Libera me as the Priest repairs to the sedilia to remove chasuble and maniple and dons his black cope.

The people REMAIN SEATED while the Celebrant, led by the M.C., repairs to the sedilia, where he doffs his chasuble and maniple and dons his cope with the assistance of Acolytes (if present) and M.C. The Crucifer takes the processional cross to the west end of the pall and turns to face the Altar. The celebrant goes to centre so as to stand facing the pall at its east end. As he approaches the pall, STAND.

The Celebrant imparts the following Rite of Absolution over the pall.

The following Responsory is sung, with versicles and responses sung antiphonally by two groups of choristers or two cantors, or else all the chant is sung by one cantor (or it may even be recited by the Priest, a Server making the responses).

℟. Libera me, Domine, de morte æterna, in die illa tremenda:
Quando cœli movendi sunt et terra: Dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem.
℣. Tremens factus sum ego, et timeo, dum discussio venerit, atque ventura ira.

℟. Quando cœli movendi sunt et terra: Dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem.
℣. Dies illa, dies ræ, calamitatis et meriæ: dies magna et amara valde.
℟. Dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem.
℣. Requiem æternam dona ei, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat ei.

 кудж. Deliver me, O Lord, from death eternal in that awful day.
When the heavens and the earth shall be moved: When Thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
℣. Dread and trembling have laid hold on me, and I fear exceedingly because of the judgement and of the wrath to come.
℟. When the heavens and the earth shall be moved: When Thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
℣. O that day, that day of wrath, of sore distress and of all wretchedness, that great day and exceeding bitter.
℟. When Thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
℣. Eternal rest grant unto him/her, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon him/her.
℟. Libera me, Domine, de morte æterna, in die illa tremenda: Quando cœli movendi sunt et terra: Dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem.

Deliver me, O Lord, from death eternal in that awful day. When the heavens and the earth shall be moved: When Thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.

As the Libera me is repeated, incense is spooned, and the Priest blesses it, saying:

Then the Priest says the treble Kyrie, after which he receives the aspergillum.

Priest

Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy.
Christe, eleison. Christ, have mercy.
Kyrie, eleison. Lord, have mercy.

Then the Priest begins the Pater aloud:

Priest:

Our Father, [continuing silently . . .] Who art in Heaven. Hallowed by Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, . . .

Then the Priest, accompanied, if possible, by Acolytes, walks twice around the pall in the counter-clockwise direction, aspersing the pall. Then he does likewise whilst incensing the pall. As he proceeds (or beforehand if need be), he says the foregoing prayer, after which he and the M.C. recite the following versicles and responses, and he says the Collect:

℣. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.
℟. Sed liberal nos a malo.
℣. A porta inferi.
℟. Erue, Domine, animam ejus.
℣. Requiescat in pace.
℟. Amen.

℣. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. But deliver us from evil.
℣. From the gate of Hell.
℟. Deliver his/her soul, O Lord.
℣. May he/she rest in peace.
℟. Amen.
℣. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.
℣. Dominus vobiscum.
℟. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Now the Priest imparts the Absolution over the Pall, the body not being present:

Orémus.

Let us pray
Absólve, quǽsumus, Dómine, ánimam famuli tui (vel fámulæ tuæ) N., ab omni vínculo delictórum : ut, in resurrectiónis glória, inter Sanctos et eléctos tuos resuscitátus (-a) respíret. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum.
℟. Amen.

Now the Priest, making the Signum Crucis with his right hand over the catafalque, says:

℣. Réquiem ætérnam dona ei, Domine.
℟. Et lux perpétua lúceat ei.
℣. Requiéscat in pace.
℟. Amen.

Now the Priest says without inflexion:

℣. Anima ejus et ánimæ omnium fidélium defunctórum per misericórdiam Dei requiéscant in pace.
℟. Amen.

This imprecation having been delivered, the Cross (and Torchbearers, if they be present) walk to and around the bier. When they reach the head of the nave, the Thurifer precedes the Cross party and other sacred ministers follow with the Celebrant in train. As they pass the bier, the Celebrant recites without chanting the Verse Si iniquitates and Psalm 169, De Profundis, to and including the Requiem and its Response:
Si iniquitátes observáveris, Dómine: Dómine, quis sustinébit?

If Thou, O Lord, shalt mark iniquities, Lord, who shall endure it?

De profúndis clamávi ad te, Dómine: Dómine, exáudi vocem meam.

Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord! Lord, hear my voice.

Fiant aures tuae intendéntes: in vocem deprecatiónis meæ.

Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

Si iniquitátes observáveris, Dómine: Dómine, quis sustinébit?

If Thou, O Lord, shalt mark iniquities, Lord, who shall endure it?

Quia apud te propitiátio est: et propter legem tuam sustínui te, Dómine.

For with Thee, there is merciful forgiveness, and by reason of Thy law, I have waited upon Thee, O Lord.

Sustínuit ánima mea in verbo ejus: sperávit ánima mea in Dómino.

My soul hath relied on His word: my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

A custódia matutína usque ad noctem: speret Israël in Dómino.

From the morning watch even until night, let Israel hope in the Lord:

Quia apud Dóminum misericórdia: et copiósa apud eum redéemptio.

For, with the Lord, there is mercy, and with Him, plentiful redemption.

Et ipse rédimet Israël, ex ómnibus iniquitátibus ejus.

And He shall redeem Israel, from all his iniquities.

℣. Requiém ætérnam dona eis, Dómine.

℣. Eternal rest give unto them, O Lord.

℟. Et lux perpétua lúceat eis.

℟. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

Leaving the nave,

the Celebrant repeats the Antiphon of Psalm 169:

Si iniquitátes observáveris, Dómine: Dómine, quis sustinébit?

Once the Celebrant has left the nave, the people kneel down to say private prayers for the departed soul. Meanwhile, in the Sacristy, the sacred ministers reverence the Cross and say the following closing prayers:

SACRISTY PRAYERS

The sacred ministers reverence the sacristy cross and all together say a threefold Kyrie:

Kýrie éléison.
Lord, have mercy.

Christe éléison.
Christ, have mercy.

Kýrie éléison.
Lord, have mercy.

℣. Et ne nos indúcas in tentatiónem.
℟. Sed líbera nos a malo.
℣. A porta ínferi.
℟. Erue, Dómine, animas eórum.
℣. Requiénscant in pace.
℟. Amen.
℣. Dómine, exáudi oratiónem meam.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te véniat.
℣. Dóminus vobíscum.
℟. Et cum spíritu tuo.

Orémus.
O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful: grant unto the souls of Thy servants and handmaids the remission of all their sins; that, through devout supplications, they may obtain the pardon which they have always desired: who livest and reignest, world without end.

℟. Amen.
℣. Réquiem ætérnam dona eis, Dómine.
℟. Et lux perpétua lúceat eis.
℣. Requiénscant in pace.
℟. Amen.

Now the Celebrant unvests

The Celebrant begins the Pater aloud:

Our Father [all continuing in silence: who art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. . . ]

℣. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. But deliver us from evil.
℣. From the gate of Hell.
℟. Deliver their souls, O Lord.
℣. May they rest in peace.
℟. Amen.
℣. O Lord, hear my prayer.
℟. And let my cry come unto Thee.
℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with Thy spirit.

Let us pray.
The Church’s official prayers for the Dead tend to be very formal, as she wishes to show great respect to departed souls in public. Furthermore, it is impossible for the Church to comprehend the depth of sorrow of a bereaved husband or wife, parent or child. Therefore, the following prayers are few in number and they do not propose to replace the spontaneous personal prayers of the bereaved, implored from the heart. But they can help connect the sorrow felt to the Church’s teaching about the prospects of a blessed resurrection with God and our Lady and all the angels and saints in the Beatific Vision.

A. PRAYERS FOR DECEASED MEN AND WOMEN, AND FOR MOTHERS AND FATHERS

1. Prayer for a departed man or boy (over the age of seven) on the day of his decease or burial (or between death and burial or upon hearing of death)

   O God, Whose property is always to have mercy and to spare, we humbly beseech Thee to save the soul of Thy servant N., which Thou hast this day commanded to depart out of this world. Deliver him not into the hands of the enemy, nor forget him unto the end but, we beseech Thee, command him to be received by Thy holy angels and to be conducted into Paradise, his true country; that, as in Thee he hath hoped and believed, he may not suffer the pains of Hell, but may take possession of eternal joys. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. Prayer for a departed woman or girl (over the age of seven) on the day of her decease or burial (or between death and burial or upon hearing of death)

   O God, Whose property is always to have mercy and to spare, we humbly beseech Thee to save the soul of Thy handmaid N., which Thou hast this day commanded to depart out of this world. Deliver her not into the hands of the enemy, nor forget her unto the end but, we beseech Thee, command her to be received by Thy holy angels and to be conducted into Paradise, her true country; that, as in Thee she hath hoped and believed, she may not suffer the pains of Hell, but may take possession of eternal joys. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
3. For a man or boy (over seven) lately deceased

Absolve, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the soul of Thy servant N. from every bond of sin. Being raised in the glory of the Resurrection, may he be refreshed among Thy saints and elect. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. For a woman or girl (over seven) lately deceased

Absolve, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the soul of Thy handmaid N. from every bond of sin. Being raised in the glory of the Resurrection, may she be refreshed among Thy saints and elect. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

5. For one’s mother

O God, Who hast commanded us to honour our father and mother, have compassion, in Thy mercy, on the soul of my mother N. Forgive her her sins, and grant that I may see her in the joy of eternal brightness.

6. For one’s father

O God, Who hast commanded us to honour our father and mother, have compassion, in Thy mercy, on the soul of my father N. Forgive him his sins, and grant that I may see him in the joy of eternal brightness.

7. For mourners

Almighty and most merciful Father,
Who knowest the weakness of our nature,
bow down Thine ear in pity unto Thy servants,
upon whom Thou hast laid the heavy burden of sorrow.
Take away out of their hearts the spirit of rebellion, and teach them to see Thy good and gracious purpose working in all the trials which Thou dost send upon them.
Grant that they may not languish in fruitless and unavailing grief, nor sorrow as those who have not hope,
but through their tears look meekly up to Thee,
the God of all consolation.
Through the same Christ our Lord. R. Amen
B. PERSONALISED LITURGICAL PRAYERS:
COLLECT FROM THE FUNERAL MASS, AND THE
IN PARADISUM FROM THE OBSEQUIES THEREAFTER

1. Collect of the Funeral Masses: Only minimally revised (so that the supplicator is one person) but divided for the sexes:

   For a boy over seven or a man:

   O God, Whose property is ever to have mercy and to spare, I humbly entreat Thee on behalf of the soul of Thy servant N., whom Thou hast bidden this day to pass out of this world: that Thou wouldst not deliver him into the hands of the enemy nor forget him for ever, but command him to be taken up by the holy angels, and to be borne to our home in Paradise, that, as he had put his faith and hope in Thee, he may not undergo the pains of Hell but may possess everlasting joys. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

   For a girl over seven or a woman:

   O God, Whose property is ever to have mercy and to spare, I humbly entreat Thee on behalf of the soul of Thy handmaid N., whom Thou hast bidden this day to pass out of this world: that Thou wouldst not deliver her into the hands of the enemy nor forget her for ever, but command her to be taken up by the holy angels, and to be borne to our home in Paradise, that, as she had put her faith and hope in Thee, she may not undergo the pains of Hell but may possess everlasting joys. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

2. The In Paradisum, Kyrie, Requiem, &c., with only an adjustment to add a name

   For a boy over seven or for a man.

   May the angels lead thee into Paradise, N.: may the Martyrs receive thee at thy coming, and lead thee into the holy City of Jerusalem. May the choir of angels receive thee, and mayest thou have eternal rest with Lazarus, who once was poor.

   Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

   Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon him.
May he rest in peace. Amen.

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

For a girl over seven or for a woman.

May the angels lead thee into Paradise, N.: may the Martyrs receive thee at thy coming, and lead thee into the holy City of Jerusalem. May the choir of angels receive thee, and mayest thou have eternal rest with Lazarus, who once was poor.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon her.

May she rest in peace. Amen.

May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
MEMORIAL DAYS FOR THE FAITHFULLY DECEASED OF THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS CONGREGATION

When a faithful dies, there can be as many as three Masses said for him or her before interment takes place: a Mass said the day after hearing of the death, the Funeral Mass said after the wake or, at least, several days after death, and a Mass on the day of burial. These Masses are not included in this Missalette.
The funeral Mass is properly preceded by Vespers of the dead the evening before and Matins and Lauds of the dead on the day of the funeral. It is the most public day of mourning for the deceased. A burial Mass may be more private if the family prefers this.

After death, it is customary to say a Requiem Mass on the third, seventh and thirtieth day after death or in any given case, after burial. When any of these days falls on a Sunday or a day of first or second class, it is transferred to the first available day of third or fourth class.

On the first available day of third or fourth class on or after the anniversary of death or of burial, or at some convenient time thereabouts, or at least in the year following death, the anniversary Requiem Mass is offered.

In years subsequent to this, at a favoured time, the Daily Mass for the Dead may be said for a given deceased faithful. For example, this could be said in second and subsequent years on the first available third- or fourth-class day on or after the calendar date of death or burial. Some religious congregations offer Masses for deceased faithful for centuries, even perpetually.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We gratefully acknowledge the following organisations which freely make available the products of their labour:

- http://maternalheart.org/
- http://missale.heliohost.org/ (now suspended - February 2013)

We have used some of their materials and adapted it for our needs.

We likewise make our seasonal missalettes available at no cost for the benefit of other Traditional Latin Mass communities. For further information, visit our website: http://latinmassvictoria.com/

Newly formed Traditional Latin Mass communities may benefit from what we have produced. They are free to download copy and make modifications to suit their own needs or preferences.

We do not copyright the products of our labour and ask anyone using our resources in modified format to act generously likewise. We offer our efforts up for the greater glory of Holy Mother Church.

Our web site lists a copy in p.d.f. format. Some may find it easier to make changes to a WORD document rather than to a p.d.f. document. Anyone wishing to receive a copy in Microsoft WORD format can request this by the e-mail address provided on our web site, http://latinmassvictoria.com

Information about lay-out and printing in a 5.5 in. x 8.5 in. can also be obtained by e-mail address on our website.

This Missalette has been produced by Una Voce Vancouver Island Association (U.V.V.I.A.)

Please return this booklet after use.
