NEWS

1. Support for our Seminarians

We have recently donated $500 from our Seminarian Fund. This money is raised in exchange for food and drinks which are made available after our Sunday Masses, and also through the sale of veils and books.

We encourage everyone attending the Sunday Latin Mass to go downstairs to the hall below the Church for refreshments and fellowship with other members of the Traditional Latin Mass community. There you can also buy veils through Miss Frances Lally. On the first Sunday of each month, we also sell second-hand and some new books. The next occasion for this will be Sunday, 5th May.

In addition to offering financial support, we must also pray much for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. The Church is in great need of holy priests, and many of them. Today, they are largely attending those seminaries that follow the traditional path of formation, which includes intense training in established theology, Thomistic philosophy, and patristics. They also learn liturgical science and Latin and how to offer the Traditional Latin Mass and administer the Sacraments in accordance with the 1962 rubrics.

2. An invitation from the Editor of the Remnant Newspaper

Join the Remnant League of the Sacred Heart

The great Catholic counterrevolutionaries in history fought under the banner of the Sacred Heart. From the Vendean in France, to the Cristeros in Mexico, to the Carlists in Spain.

And now we do likewise in the worldwide Traditional Catholic movement.

We're very excited to invite friends and allies of "The Remnant" to become members of The Remnant League of the Sacred Heart.

If you promise at least to spread devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we will send you this beautiful champlevé enamel gold-plated pin for free. Pins are 1/2 inch in height.

Several people in our community are already wearing the pin.

For further information go to the following website.

Information sheets will be available on the Book Sales table in the hall on 5th May.

3. Family and Life

World Congress of Families Fights Back Against the New Anti-Christ Europe. Italy, Russia, Hungary, Moldova and Poland Sign Up to Defend Christian Civilization.

<https://edition.cnn.com/2019/03/31/europe/verona-world-congress-of-families-intl/index.html>

Dr. Chojnowski: In this sign of the emergence of some militant resistance to the anti-Christian anti-Natural forces that have taken over Europe over the past 30 years, the World Congress of Families has situated itself in Verona, Italy, a city which has declared itself a Pro-Life City. The article from CNN linked to above is very informative and encouraging, if you can wade through the name-calling and labelling that is their only rational argument against such a common sense movement. The "balanced" article sticks the word "hate" on the entire movement before the movement is considered in its issues and the variety of its national manifestations. As expected, the strange feminist, pro-abortion, and pro-sodomite opposition is high-lighted in this article. Thank the Good God that there are whole European nations which are rising up and saying that they will not accept the perverse and twisted world that these anti-christ forces wish to submerge us all in. To avoid all political correctness, ADTRAN Thomist declares itself supportive of the objectives of the World Congress of Families and against the perversities supported by their opponents and detractors.

4. Birthright Plant Sales in May

Birthright is holding its Annual Plant Sale in May to raise funds to maintain support for pregnant mothers in distress. Posters have been placed, providing times and locations, on the bulletin boards in the vestibule of the church and near the side entrance of the building.

LITURGY

This month we shall have two extra Masses in addition to the regular Friday and Sunday Masses. They are the feast of St. Joseph the Workman on Wednesday 1st. May and the Feast of the Ascension of our Blessed Lord on Thursday, 30th May,.

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The feastday of her Coronation as Queen of Heaven and Earth is 31st May. It falls on a Friday, a day of our regular Mass.

SCIENCE AND RELIGION<sup>1</sup>

It is important that one understand the real reason for the precipitous decline of the influence of the Catholic Church in the world today and what led to this decline. Most are aware of the rapid increase in apostasy, the de-Christianisation of the Western World, and the scandals that have weakened the influence of the Church. Many blame the Vatican II documents and the Novus Ordo Mass for this decline and those influences have certainly contributed a great deal to the problems. The deeper reasons for the decline in faith and morals go farther back into history.

The waning influence of the Church is strongly tied to the growing tension between science and religion which began in the seventeenth century. The publication of Sir Isaac Newton's Principia in 1687, describing his famous laws of mechanics, offered new insights into planetary motion. Galileo observed smaller bodies rotating around the planet Jupiter and, given that, he hypothesized that the earth might similarly be rotating about the much bigger sun.

Although his hypothesis could not be proved right or wrong until about 250 year later, it began the idea started to cause tension between science and religion. Galileo's views of the world, if true, implied that the Earth would no longer be at the centre of universe, rather, its place at centre would be occupied by the sun. Such a change in the conception of the universe, from geocentric to heliocentric, conflicts with the accounts presented in Biblical teachings, especially in the book of Genesis. St. Robert Cardinal Bellarmine correctly concluded that either view could in principle be scientifically correct but at that time there was no way of proving which view must be right. Finally, experiments conducted by Michelson and Morley in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century, proved that the geocentric view was the correct one. That troubled many in the scientific community because it could hardly be a coincidence that the earth was put in the centre of the universe. This suggested a Designer had placed it there. Richard Lewontine, speaking for the scientific community, said "We cannot allow a Divine Foot in the Door." A designer's universe implies the existence of a Creator, God. Fortunately for those depressed scientists, a genius, a wizard by the name of Albert Einstein came to their rescue. He developed a theory of Special Relativity in 1905 to try to disqualify Michelson results. That theory, being inadequate to displace the geocentric view, he then formulated his General Relativity theory in 1916 to disqualify classical mechanics and thereby reject Michelson's test results.

In his latest book<sup>2</sup> Dr. Wolfgang Smith first shows that Einstein's two Theories of Relativity have no basis in Science; that in fact, classical physics has no need for Einstein's theory; that his theory is actually wrong and that it was invented purely for ideological reasons, to keep God out of picture.

This is a mere snapshot of an on-going war between the Truth of the Catholic Faith and the false scientific claims that atheists try to make against religion. It is a battle for the souls.
