Please note that the Mass schedule on page 1 still needs to be confirmed at the time of printing this Newsletter. Any changes to the Mass schedule will be communicated by Fr. Domotor through Mr. Rob McBride who maintains a list of E-mail addresses to which he passes Father's messages on, verbatim. If occasionally he adds a personal comment, then he will always make that clear.

For those who do not possess a Daily Missal, we recommend that you use the appropriate Missalettes placed in the back of the church. For most weekdays, the Propers of the Mass are not available from our website but they usually can be found and copied or printed directly from the following web sites: <https://tridentine-mass.blogspot.com/> or <https://propria.org/ordo-2021/>

4. News from Una Voce Canada (U.V.C.)

Last month's Newsletter showed the relationship of our local U.V.V.I.A. to the national U.V.C. While we, the U.V.V.I.A., have a close working relationship with the U.V.C., you may want to consider a membership in the latter organisation which costs $25.00 annually. That membership comes with an excellent quarterly magazine and gives you the right to vote at its A.G.M. (Annual General Meeting). This year that meeting will be on-line so that you need not travel to Vancouver to cast your vote.

In a recent email, the President of the U.V.C., Mr. David Reid, wrote that the U.V.C., despite very challenging times, continues to forge ahead. For example: yearly we are now donating at least $20,000 to traditional Canadian Seminarians and in 2022 we will be increasing the number of Traditional Latin Masses we have offered to 1,000. Those Masses are offered for its members. That is where the money goes that you pay for membership and for your donations to seminarian fund.

5. Pro-Life, Pro-Family and Pro-God

a. Birthright Fudge

Birthright will be selling home-made Fudge after the TLM Mass on Nov 14th. The packets make great stocking stuffers or gifts for the holiday table and freeze well! Birthright assists women in difficult or crisis pregnancies, offering hope and encouraging Mothers to give the precious gift of Life to their babies - how fitting, as we prepare for Christmas! Please consider supporting this worthwhile cause. See the poster for more information about Birthright Fudge.

b. Pro-life political actions

We suggest that you always support pro-life political candidates in any election, whether Federal, Provincial, Municipal and Schoolboards. It is our responsibility to stand up against the strong attacks on the life or the unborn, the elderly and those having any physical disability or are mentally challenged. Keep informed through reading blogs or mailing lists such as Lifesite News, Campaign Life Coalition and many others. Support local efforts such as Birthright's spring time Plant Sale and autumn Fudge Sale. Offer them occasional, or if you can regular, financial support. Remember that we cannot stand by indifferently; God will hold each one of us accountable for what we did or failed to do.

6. A new ornament in the church

When at first you saw that new heavy brass ornament in the narthex near the communion rail you may have wondered what it represented and why it was there at that particular location. What kind of a bird was it? A dove or an eagle, representing the Holy Spirit or St. John the evangelist? It was not until weeks later when an altar server for the Ordinarate Mass placed a book on the back of the wings that its function became clear. It was a lectern used at the Epistle reading. It's very heavy base now made also sense. It rendered stability to the top-heavy structure keeping it sturdily in its upright position. But did you know that such a lectern is nothing new but that it was actually known in the Middle Ages as the image here makes clear?

LITURGY

The month of November is dedicated to all the Faithful departed. The liturgical colour is black, as is, therefore, the border of this Newsletter. The two special days are All Saints' Day, on 1st November, and All Souls' day on the next day. During this month we are exhorted to pray for the repose of the souls in Purgatory, especially for the deceased members of our families, for our departed friends, and for souls for whom no one is praying. Remember also the priests and religious who have helped you in your life. Try to express your gratitude to them, perhaps even if only for the first time in your life.

There are three litanies one can pray for the faithful departed souls, one or more may be posted on our web-site

It is meritorious always to remember the departed souls in our prayers. Offering up Masses for them is especially efficacious because Holy Mass is the greatest of all devotions and the highest form of prayer. We should pray and offer up Masses especially for our departed family members, friends, priests, religious and others who have served us in our life.

For those who would like to learn more about purgatory we suggest you download an interesting booklet of 28 pages, in p.d.f. format, titled “Read Me or Rue It” written by Fr, Pail O’Sullivan, from the following link:

<https://ia600309.us.archive.org/35/items/ReadMeOrRueIt/ReadMeOrRueIt.pdf>

Here is a short table of content: 1. What is Purgatory? 2. Can all this be true? 3. How long do souls remain in Purgatory? 4. Why pray for the poor souls? 5. How can we help the Holy Souls? 6. What the Holy Souls do for those who help them. Appendix The Brown Scapular

In the last Newsletter we promised to include in this edition another true story proving the efficacy of persistently praying the rosary. Here is that true story which occurred in 1955 in Austria.

Holy Rosary Crusade of Reparation

Fr. Petrus Pavlicek convoked the Viennese faithful to a public Rosary procession, asking God to expel the communists from Austria.

After World War II, Austria was divided between four countries: America, France, the United Kingdom, and the Soviet Union. At the time, Russia was still communist. The section of Austria controlled by the communists was the richest, and included the city of Vienna. The Viennese were subject to all the atrocities and tyrannies of communism.

However, in 1946, Fr. Petrus Pavlicek, after making a pilgrimage to Mariazell, the principal Marian shrine in Austria, was told by an interior voice: “Do as I say and there will be peace.”

To obey this inspiration of Our Lady, Fr. Pevlicek founded the Holy Rosary Crusade of Reparation in 1947. This Crusade consisted of the Viennese faithful coming out of their homes in order to participate in a public Rosary procession in the streets of the city. The intentions of the Rosary were for the end of communism in their country and in the world. At first, the processions were miniscule, but in time they grew to staggering proportions.

The following excerpt is from the following website where you can read more interesting information about Fr. Pevlicek, and his crusade: <https://www.schooloffaith.com/rosary-archive/petrus-pavlicek-and-the-rosary-crusade>

“Their faith having been sufficiently tried, the grace was given. On March 24, 1955, the Soviet governors invited the Austrians to a conference. Believing that his nation’s future would be sealed in Moscow, Prime Minister Raab entreated Father Pavlicek before his departure, ‘Please pray, and ask your people to pray harder than ever.’

To the world’s surprise, the Soviets announced they would withdraw their troops from Austria in just three months. On May 15, the Month of Mary, the Soviets signed a treaty guaranteeing the independence of Austria. And in October [1955], the month of the Rosary, the last Russian soldier left Austrian soil.”
